IDAHO'S SELF DIRECTION PROGRAM

FISCAL EMPLOYER AGENT SERVICES

Hello Participants...

Consumer Direct is very pleased to work with you in Idaho's Self Direction Program. We will do everything we can to assist you to self-direct your services. This folder includes a handbook and four packets of forms to get you started (the Employer Packet, the Employee Packet, the Packet for Other Service Providers and Paying for Your Supports).

We have divided the information into a handbook and four different packets. We hope that this will make it easier to find what you need. The handbook describes several things you need to do and things you need to know as an employer. The Employer Packet includes the forms and information you need to get set up as the employer. The Employee Packet includes the forms and information you need to get people started as your employees. The Packet for Other Service Providers includes forms that other people (besides employees) need to sign to provide services for you. The Paying for Your Supports Packet includes information about: 1) how to pay your employees and 2) how to pay agencies, businesses or other people (besides employees) who provide your services.

This is how the Packets work.

- ◆ The first thing in each Packet is the directions. They describe the forms and other information in the Packet.
- ◆ The second thing is a checklist that lists all of the forms you need to fill out. You can use the checklist to make sure you fill out all the forms. As you finish a form, please put a check on the line to show that you have finished it. Then sign your name at the bottom to show that you have done everything on the checklist.
- ◆ The forms you need to fill out come next. There are three copies of each form that go together: 1) an example form that shows you how it should look when you finish the form, 2) a form with boxes that tells you what to write in the spaces and 3) a blank form for you to fill out. We hope this gives you enough information so you know how to fill out each form correctly. If you have any questions at all or would like any help filling out a form, please call our office at 1-888-898-0470.
- ◆ After the forms there is some extra information that could be useful for you.

When you have finished the blank forms in each Packet, please mail them back to Consumer Direct. There is a self-addressed envelope in each Packet for you to use to mail the forms back.

If you need to mail forms to Consumer Direct later, please mail them to:

Consumer Direct
280 E. Corporate Drive, Suite 210
Meridian, Idaho 83642-2953

You also can fax completed forms to Consumer Direct at:

Fax: (208) 898-0417
Toll Free Fax: 1-877-898-0417

If you prefer, you can drop off materials at the office Monday - Friday, 8:00 - 5:00 (during work hours) or use our drop box (mail slot) after hours.

EMPLOYER PACKET

This Employer Packet includes all of the forms that you need to fill out to be the employer.

These forms are:

- ✓ Participant Enrollment Checklist
- ✓ Participant Data Form
- ✓ Fiscal Employer Agent Services Agreement
- ✓ Monthly Reports Preference Form
- ✓ IRS Form SS-4 Application for Employer Identification Number
- ✓ IRS Form 2678 Employer Appointment of Agent
- ✓ IRS Form 56 Notice Concerning Fiduciary Relationship (if applicable)
- ✓ IBR-1 Idaho Business Registration Form
- ✓ EFO00104 Idaho Tax Commission Power of Attorney
- ✓ Participant or Employee Status Change Form
- ✓ Feedback Form

These forms will set you up as an employer and will give Consumer Direct permission to file employee and employer taxes for you. Most employees must pay taxes (for example, Social Security, Medicare, State and Federal income taxes). These taxes are taken out of your employee's paychecks. Consumer Direct produces a summary of all the employee taxes on a W-2 Wage Statement and mails it to your employees at the end of the year. Employers also pay taxes. Employers match employee payments to Social Security and Medicare. Employers also must pay State and Federal Unemployment. Consumer Direct makes these tax payments with funds from your budget, just like payments for your employees' wages.

You can fill out these forms by looking at the examples in the packet. For each state and federal tax form, the Employer Packet includes:

- 1) an example of a completed form (so you can see what things should be written on the form),
- 2) an example form with grey boxes that explains how you should fill out the form,
- 3) a blank form for you to fill out.

Important

If a guardian signs the bottom of a form for you, Consumer Direct needs a copy of your guardianship legal paperwork. We need this to verify that your guardian has legal authority to speak and act for you.

If you have questions about how to fill out any of the forms, please call Consumer Direct right away so we can help you. Our toll free number is 1-888-898-0470. If you want more help, you also can stop by the Consumer Direct office at 280 E. Corporate Drive, Suite 210, Meridian, Monday - Friday, 8:00 am - 5:00 pm.

When you have completed all the forms, please mail or fax them to Consumer Direct at:

The image shows a portion of the IRS Form SS-4, 'Application for Employer Identification Number'. The form is titled 'SS-4 Application for Employer Identification Number' and includes instructions for completion. It contains several numbered sections for providing business information, including the legal name, mailing address, and principal office. There are also checkboxes for identifying the type of entity, such as a partnership, corporation, or sole proprietor. The form is partially filled out with handwritten text.

You also can drop completed forms off at our office.

The forms in the Employer Packet are:

1. Participant Enrollment Checklist: This Checklist lists all of the forms in the Employer Packet that you need to fill out. You can use this Checklist to keep track of which forms you have finished. When you finish each form, write down the date on the line next to the form on the Checklist. Also write your initials to show that you have finished the form. Put a check (✓) to show if you want copies of the forms mailed to you. Consumer Direct will send you copies of the forms if you want copies. (It usually is a good idea to get copies of the forms so you know what you signed.) There is space on the form to tell Consumer Direct how you want us to get in touch with you. If we have a question, should we phone you? Email you? Or mail you a letter? Please print your name and then sign the bottom of the form.
2. Participant Data Form: The Participant Data Form gives Consumer Direct basic information about you so you can be set up in our system as an employer. Please fill out the form completely. The blanks are labeled to tell you what to write in each of them.
3. Fiscal Employer Agent Services Agreement: This is an agreement between Consumer Direct and you, the participant (and your representative, if you appointed one) which defines the responsibilities and roles of each party in the Idaho My Voice/My Choice Program.
4. Monthly Reports Preference Form: Consumer Direct will provide you with monthly reports detailing your Support and Spending Plan account balances. Use this form to let us know if you would like to receive paper reports through the US mail or if you prefer to view reports online through the web portal, mydirectcare.com.
5. IRS Form SS-4 Application for Employer Identification Number: This form tells the IRS that you are going to be an employer (household employer). The SS-4 is used to get an Employer Identification Number (EIN). The EIN is needed for filing and reporting taxes. When you fill out this form, please make sure to:
 - ▶ Fill in each box as explained on the example form.
 - ▶ Make an estimate (your best guess) for Lines 11 and 15.
 - ▶ Please make sure that the name you write in Line 7 is your legal name as it appears on your Social Security card. Don't use a nickname.

- ▶ Sign and date the form at the bottom, and include your phone number and fax number.

PLEASE MAKE SURE... THE NAME YOU WRITE ON LINE 1 OF THE SS-4 IS THE NAME YOU USE ON ALL THE OTHER FEDERAL AND STATE TAX FORMS.

6. IRS Form 2678 Employer Appointment of Agent: This form tells the IRS that you give Consumer Direct permission to do work for you. You give us permission to withhold taxes from your employees' paychecks and deposit (pay in) those taxes with the IRS. With this form you appoint Consumer Direct to take care of employer tax responsibilities. When you fill out this form, please make sure that you:

- ▶ Write your name the same way that you did on Line 1 of the SS-4.
- ▶ Sign and date the form at the bottom of page 1. Don't forget to include your phone number.
- ▶ DO NOT write in the box on page 2 where it says "Sign your name here". That box is for Consumer Direct to write in.

7. IRS Form 56 Notice Concerning Fiduciary Relationship: This form ONLY needs to be completed if the Participant has a guardian representing them. It notifies the IRS of the fiduciary relationship between said parties.

8. IBR-1: The IBR-1 Form (Idaho Business Registration Form) is used to get an Idaho unemployment number and a withholding number that are needed to take care of payroll reports. Complete the form by:

- ▶ Writing your name, signing and dating the form at the bottom of the first page so your name matches what you have written on the other IRS forms.
- ▶ Filling in each box as explained on the example form.

9. EFO00104: The Idaho Tax Commission Power of Attorney Form (EFO00104) gives your permission to Consumer Direct to receive information from the Idaho Tax Commission and the Idaho Commerce and Labor Department regarding payroll taxes. Please:

- ▶ Write your name and make sure it matches what you have written on the other IRS and State forms.
- ▶ Fill in each box as explained on the example form.
- ▶ Sign the bottom of the form.

10. Medicaid-Support Broker Employment Agreement: The Medicaid-Support Broker Agreement is a State form which the Support Broker must review and sign because the Support Broker is an employee of the Participant. Ask the Support Broker to please review the form carefully. To complete the form, the Support Broker prints his/her name in the blank on page 1. Then, the Support Broker signs and dates the form at the bottom. The Support Broker's signature indicates that he/she agrees with the conditions outlined in the Agreement.

11. Participant-Support Broker Agreement: This is the State form that the Support Broker develops with you. You write the specific services you want the Support Broker to do. You also write how often and how long you want the Support Broker to provide the services. Then you write what you will pay the Support Broker. The directions are attached to the form. Please read them carefully and follow the directions to complete the Agreement with the Support Broker.

12. Medicaid-Community Support Worker Agreement: The Medicaid-Community Support Worker Agreement is a State form which a person must review and sign to enroll as your employee. This Agreement describes things that the worker will do as an employee. The employee agrees that you will pay him/her only for work he/she does according to program rules, this Agreement and your Support and Spending Plan. To complete the Agreement: print the employee's name in the blank on page 1. Check the correct box to indicate if the employee is connected with an agency. Ask the employee to review the form carefully. Then, the employee signs and dates the form at the bottom. The employee's signature indicates that he/she agrees with the conditions outlined in the Agreement.

13. Participant-Community Support Worker Employment Agreement: This is the State form that you develop with your employee. You write the specific services you want the employee to do. You also write how often and how long you want the employee to provide the services. Then you write what you will pay the employee. The directions are attached to the form. Please read them carefully and follow the directions to complete the Participant-Community Support Worker Employment Agreement.

14. Criminal History Check: A Participant can choose not to have a criminal history background check on an employee. This means the criminal history background check is waived. If you choose this option, you have to complete a written statement that explains your choice. There are two forms in the packet related to the criminal history check. If you choose not to have the criminal history check done, you must complete the Criminal History Check: Waiver of Liability - Assumption of Risk Form. If a worker has failed a criminal history background check, you still can consider employing the person. But, in this situation, you have to fill out the Criminal History Check: Waiver of Liability - Assumption of Risk - Failed Criminal History Check Form. These forms are attached to the Participant-Community Support Worker Employment Agreement. You and the employee both need to read these forms carefully.

When a Participant is hiring a new employee (Community Support Worker or Support Broker), there is a mandatory requirement to perform a Criminal history Check (CHC) unless the Participant has signed a CHC waiver for the employee. This means:

- a. The Participant must contact the Department of Health and Welfare (DHW), Criminal History Unit and request a Criminal History Check on the potential employee. At that time the Participant can either set up an appointment for the potential employee (applicant), or the employee (applicant) can set up his/her own appointment.
- b. Under the FEA program, the cost of the CHC is paid by the employee (applicant) at the time the person's fingerprints and identification information are taken by the DHW.

15. Wages and Cost to You: It costs you (the employer) more to employ a worker than just the person's wage. By law the employer has to match the employee's Social Security and Medicare. The employer also has to pay federal unemployment taxes (FUTA) and state unemployment taxes (SUTA). The amount the employer pays is a percentage of payroll. This form outlines what the total cost is for each employee. The total cost = wage + additional payment (Social Security, Medicare, FUTA, SUTA). The total cost is different for each wage. This form helps you know what the total cost is per hour for each wage you might pay.

The last three forms do not need to be filled out right away. Please keep them and use them later if you need to. You also can call the Consumer Direct office at any time if you want more forms.

Status Change Form: This form is used to tell Consumer Direct if there is new information about (1) the program participant (employer), (2) a participant's Managing Party, or (3) an employee. Has someone's name or address changed? Has someone's phone number or email address changed? When you fill out this form, please:

- ▶ At the top of the form, write the name of the person for whom the change applies to and the Effective Date of the change. Then, check the appropriate box to identify if the person named is a Service Recipient, a Managing Party (such as a legal representative of a program recipient) or an Employee.
- ▶ If your name has changed, write in your "old" name and your "new" name.
- ▶ If your mailing or email address has changed, write in your new address.
- ▶ If your phone number has changed, put a ✓ to show which number changed. Then write in the new phone number.
- ▶ Sign and date the form to tell us that this new information is correct.

If you need more Status Change Forms please call, fax or email Consumer Direct.

Termination Form: The Termination Form serves two purposes. It notifies Consumer Direct when you have terminated an employee or when the employee has decided to stop working for you. It also provides information about where the employee's last check should be sent and any special instructions about the last check. You should fill it out when necessary for an employee. The label in each box clearly shows what should be filled out in the box. You and the employee complete this form together. Then sign and date it at the bottom. You mail, fax or drop off the completed form to Consumer Direct.

Feedback Form: Consumer Direct always is interested in feedback from you. Your feedback helps us improve our services. We want to hear about things that worked well for you (compliments or comments), ideas you have for doing things better and any concerns you have with Consumer Direct services. To give us feedback you can:

- ▶ Call a Program Coordinator in Idaho (the toll free number 1-888-898-0470). The Program Coordinator will listen to your feedback and respond to it quickly. He/she will appreciate hearing things that are working well for you, because we want to keep doing these things! The Program Coordinator also will want to hear your ideas for new ways to do things, because that will make our services better. If there is a concern, he/she will work with the Participant, Support Broker, employees or other service providers to fix problems.
- ▶ Fill out the Feedback Form in the Employer Packet and mail it or fax it to the Consumer Direct office.
- ▶ Contact the Idaho Consumer Direct Program Manager or Regional Director (the toll free number is 1-888-898-0470), if your feedback is about the Program Coordinator.
- ▶ Also contact the Idaho Consumer Direct Program Manager or Regional Director if you talked with the Program Coordinator first, but you would like to talk with someone else about your feedback. They will discuss your feedback with you. If there is a problem, she/he will talk with you about ways to deal with your concern.

To complete the Feedback Form please fill out the blanks at the top. Then in the white box write:

- What has worked well for you (your compliment or comment),
- What things we should do differently (your suggestion) or
- What you are unhappy about (your complaint).

PLEASE, if you are unhappy (dissatisfied) about the services you are getting from Consumer Direct, let us know right away. Don't let the problem get bigger. We will try to work out the problem with you.

To enroll Participants and their employees, Consumer Direct needs to have all the required employer and employee forms completed and mailed or faxed back to us. You also can drop them off at our office.

We will be glad to send you copies of all the forms. Please let us know if you want copies. On the Participant Enrollment Checklist, check “yes” where it says “Please send me copies of all signed forms”.

If you have any questions or would like any help filling out a form, please call our office (1-888-898-0470) or stop by the office at 280 E. Corporate Drive, Suite 210, Meridian, ID.

Notes

This Fiscal Employer Agent Services Agreement (“Agreement”) is made and entered into as of _____ (“Start Date”) between Idaho Consumer Direct Personal Care, LLC (“Consumer Direct”) and _____ Client and _____ Client’s Legal Guardian.

DEFINITIONS

1. The “Managing Party” is the individual, Client, who has a disability or is elderly and who receives services through the My Voice/My Choice or Family-Directed Services Program, or the Client’s Legal Guardian who manages day-to-day activities on the Client’s behalf. The Federal Employer Identification Number (“FEIN”) Holder will be the Employer of Record and Employer of Fact and can employ individual(s) to provide services to the Client in their home.
2. Consumer Direct Fiscal Vendor Agent for Idaho, LLC is the “Fiscal Employer Agent” (“FE/A”), working in conjunction with Consumer Direct, and serving as the Fiscal Employer Agent as authorized under IRS Revenue Procedure 70-6, for the purpose of payroll and payroll reporting services filing on behalf of the Employer of Record’s FEIN Holder.
3. The “Authorizing Entity” is the entity that governs the services and authorizes Care Plans or Client Budgets. In this case, the Authorizing Entity is Idaho Medicaid and its agents associated with the My Voice/My Choice and Family-Directed Services Programs. The Authorizing Entity recognizes that Consumer Direct, acting as the FE/A, will provide payroll service assistance to the Managing Party pursuant to IDAPA 16. Title 03. Chapter 13.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE MANAGING PARTY

1. Choose Consumer Direct as its FE/A.
2. Complete all of the forms required by Consumer Direct for its FE/A services. This includes accurately filling out all required IRS and Idaho State Tax forms (e.g. exempt status, Unemployment, etc.).
3. Obtain a Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN) with the assistance of Consumer Direct.
4. Follow all Federal and State employment laws, regulations, and rules; including:
 - a. Recruiting, interviewing, checking references, hiring, training, scheduling, managing, and terminating their Employee(s). This includes directing the day-to-day care of the Client and addressing conflicts between Employees.
 - b. Employee cannot be a paid guardian.
 - c. When a guardianship relationship exists, Guardianship papers must be provided to Consumer Direct prior to the initiation of services.
 - d. Submit all new employee paperwork to Consumer Direct prior to the initiation of service. All required documents must be completed and submitted as a complete packet in order for them to be processed timely. Any incomplete documents may delay an employee’s start date.
 - e. Provide equal employment opportunities to all Employees and interested Employees without discrimination as to race, creed, color, national origin, gender, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or any other legally protected status in all employment decisions, including recruitment, hiring, changing schedules and number of hours worked, layoffs, and terminations, and all other terms and conditions of employment. The Managing Party accepts full and specific responsibility for following Equal Opportunity laws and requirements regarding Employees. Each Employee is to be treated fairly and consistently, e.g., if the Managing Party decides to do a criminal background check or reference check on one Employee, it must be done on all Employees.

- f. An Employee may not provide services while the Client is hospitalized or receiving any other Medicaid-reimbursed service.
 - g. Review and approve time sheets which authorize the Authorizing Entity to be billed. Submit time sheets in a timely manner (within 15 days of due date) in accordance with the Consumer Direct payroll schedule. The Managing Party and Employee signatures/approval, on the time sheets (or Web Portal) mean that the information on the time sheet is accurate and true. If the Managing Party signs/approves and the hours have not been worked, it is considered fraud. The Managing Party can be held accountable for approving time sheets that contain fraudulent information that result in over-billing the Authorizing Entity.
 - h. The Managing Party is responsible for monitoring the monthly Spending Summary Report provided by Consumer Direct and for keeping all expenditures within Client's authorized budget amount.
 - i. If the Managing Party authorizes use of all funds/hours before the end of the period, the Managing Party will need to make other service arrangements, e.g. use non-paid support staff, etc. The Managing Party is responsible for the payment of any wages and expenses that exceed the amount authorized in the Client's Authorized Plan/budget.
 - j. Inform Consumer Direct, within one working day, of any changes in the Clients' status, e.g., name, address, telephone number, hospitalization, terminations, etc.
 - k. Inform Consumer Direct of the standard rate of pay for the Employee, including timely notification of any changes in the rate.
 - l. Maintain compliance with Authorizing Entity's approved utilization amounts for the Client.
5. Reimburse Consumer Direct for any payment of wages and expenses that exceed the amount authorized in Client's Authorized Plan.
 6. Immediately Report:
 - a. Any possible fraud/Medicaid fraud to Consumer Direct.
 - b. Abuse, neglect and exploitation or impairment or health risk to the appropriate authorities, i.e., Adult Protective Services, Medicaid, and Consumer Direct.
 - c. Employee changes, including name, address, contact number, and/or employment status.
 7. Appoint a temporary representative if the Client or their Legal Guardian is not capable or available to direct the care.
 8. The Managing Party agrees to accept and allow Consumer Direct to transmit information electronically pursuant to the uniform Electronic Business Act and HIPAA.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF CONSUMER DIRECT

1. Provide the Client with an Enrollment Packet, Employee Packet(s) and Employee training materials.
2. Pay wages to Employee on a bi-weekly schedule, in accordance with the time sheets approved, in writing (or electronically through the Web Portal), by the Managing Party.
3. Deposit Employer-related taxes, in the aggregate, using the FE/A's designated FEIN.
4. Follow all IRS and State reporting guidelines. This will begin with the client's Start Date even though this date is prior to the formal IRS authorization.
5. Obtain Fiscal Employer Agency authorization pursuant to IRS Revenue Procedure 70-6 and follow all IRS guidelines including obtaining all proper Federal and State authorizations.
6. Follow all tax exemptions and withholdings as stated on Employee's W-4, and process all tax withholdings & filings including Federal and State income taxes, FICA, Medicare tax, FUTA, and SUTA, and any other mandated withholding, as appropriate, on behalf of the Client.
7. Track expenditures and send a report each month. This information is also maintained on the Web-Portal. The Managing Party is responsible for monitoring the spending reports and not using more service hours or budget amounts than approved.
8. Submit all claims for services to the Authorizing Entity on behalf of the Client.
9. Consumer Direct will not pay for tasks that are not authorized on the Support & Spending Plan until approved by the Authorizing Entity.
10. Upon termination of this Agreement, Consumer Direct will complete all required Federal and State filing requirements related to services rendered from the Start Date to the Date of Termination, even though these filings are made subsequent to the termination date, pursuant to Federal and State laws.
11. Consumer Direct will adjust payroll deductions to reflect that the State of Idaho exempts an FEIN Holder, designated as a "Household Employer," from the State requirement for employers to maintain Workers' Compensation and Unemployment Insurance.

Additional Agreement Terms and Conditions

Indemnification: Because the Managing Party is in a better position than Consumer Direct to monitor, supervise and watch over the Employees in the performance of their duties, the Managing Party agrees to indemnify, which means to repay, defend and hold harmless Consumer Direct from any claims, causes of actions, complaints, lawsuits claiming any damages or liability against Consumer Direct, as the result of any actions, inactions, or any conduct by the Employee, while employed by the Managing Party. This Indemnification Agreement includes any claims for damage to the Client's property or person, or the property or person of any third party. The Managing Party understands that this means that the Managing Party will be required to pay for all claims of damages caused by their Employee(s) while employed by the Managing Party, made against Consumer Direct, including the costs that Consumer Direct incurs in defending itself against such claims.

Partial Invalidity: If something in this Agreement does not apply or changes with time that does not mean the rest of the Agreement does not apply. If one part of this Agreement is determined to be invalid, the rest of the Agreement remains in place.

Conflicts/Complaints: The Managing Party agrees to abide by the Complaint Process defined by Authorizing Entity and Consumer Direct's complaint process described in the enrollment materials.

Arbitration: Consumer Direct and the Managing Party agree that they will attempt to resolve any complaints, misunderstandings and other issues between themselves. If Consumer Direct or the Managing Party decides that they cannot settle a disagreement by working together, they will choose someone together to work out the disagreement. This is called arbitration. The cost of arbitration will be paid equally between Consumer Direct and the Managing Party. The decision of the Arbitrator may be given to a judge, in the event the decision is not accepted by either party.

State Law: If Managing Party cannot solve a problem through negotiation or talking about the problem, then State laws will apply. Any legal action related to this Agreement will be conducted in the County where the Client resides.

Duration and Modification of Agreement: This Agreement will go into effect on the date indicated on the first page of this Agreement. Services may not begin until approved by the Authorizing Entity ("Start Date"). Any changes to this Agreement must be in writing, signed and dated by both the Managing Party and Consumer Direct. The Agreement may be terminated as described in the Termination section.

Timely Notification: The Managing Party and Consumer Direct agree that all contact should occur in a timely manner. Any notice will be given immediately, so that the Managing Party or Consumer Direct is not hurt by a delay.

Entire Agreement: This Agreement and other written materials provided by Consumer Direct to the Managing Party describe the complete understanding between Consumer Direct and Managing Party. Any verbal agreements do not apply. All Agreements must be in writing.

Termination: This Agreement can be terminated in three ways:

- a. Mutual Agreement - At any time, with written documentation.
- b. Termination Without Cause - By either Party, for any reason or no reason at all. The Party wishing to terminate must give written notice of its decision to terminate this Agreement at least 30 days prior to any such termination, per IDAPA 16.03.13, Sections 210.01 and 313.02.
- c. Termination for Cause - If any Party to this Agreement does not comply with the terms of this Agreement or follow the policies and procedures established by the Authorizing Entity, the other Party may provide written notice of the non-compliance and terminate this Agreement.

* In the event the Agreement termination is related to a switch to a different FE/A, the switch must occur in a manner so that the tax transition for employee records may be made accurately.

Assignment: Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, benefits, duties or obligations provided for in this Agreement may be assigned by the Managing Party to someone else without the prior, written consent of Consumer Direct.

HIPAA Consent: The Managing Party authorizes Consumer Direct to submit Protected Health Information (“PHI”) to: the authorizing entity, entities that Consumer Direct has a Referral Source Agreement with, and contractors in order to facilitate access to services and secure an authorization needed to initiate services. Consumer Direct will handle PHI in accordance with their published Privacy Practices – a copy of which is included in the enrollment materials.

CONCLUSION: The FEIN Holder is the Employer of Fact and the Employer of Record. The Managing Party understands and accepts responsibility for recruiting, hiring, training, supervising and terminating their Employee(s). The Managing Party is responsible for the actions of their Employees while they are providing services.

IDAHO Fiscal Employer Agent Monthly Reports – Preference Form

Consumer Direct Idaho is responsible for providing Participants a monthly Support and Spending Plan Budget Report and Spending Detail Report. The reports provide a snap-shot of the Participant's budget category and account balances.

These reports can be viewed in two ways – view them online or wait to receive them by mail. As a Participant with Consumer Direct you have secure access to our online Web Portal which allows you and your support broker to monitor your budget balances in real time. This means that as every payment is processed, the balance information is automatically updated. Using the Web Portal, a Participant can immediately know the balance and status of each budget category.

In order to increase efficiency and reduce waste, we are offering each Participant the option of not receiving a paper version of the budget reports each month. No matter which option you choose, you will always have access to the electronic reports on the Web Portal.

How would you prefer to review your monthly Support and Spending Plan Budget Report and Spending Detail Report?

I would like to (choose one):

Continue receiving the paper reports monthly from Consumer Direct Idaho via US Mail

OR

Stop receiving the mailed paper reports and will view my reports on the web portal instead.

If you fail to withhold the required purchase money and the taxes remain due and unpaid after the business is sold or converted to another entity type, you may be liable for the payment of the taxes collected or unpaid by the former owner/entity. Family-Directed Services Option FISCAL EMPLOYER AGENT SERVICES

COMMUNITY SUPPORT WORKER EMPLOYEE PACKET

Welcome to Idaho's Family-Directed Services Option! We are pleased that you will be working with and providing services to a family in this program. You will be helping Idaho meet its goal of giving people with disabilities more choice and control over their services.

Introduction: Consumer Direct is a Fiscal Employer Agent for the Family-Directed Services Option. We are like a personal banker or payroll service company. We process payroll, file taxes, pay for services provided by other businesses or agencies and bill the state for services. Consumer Direct provides the family with the necessary paperwork to get set up as an employer. We also provide the paperwork for individuals to become enrolled as a family's employee. Once employees are enrolled, we process all of the forms and pay employees as directed by the family (employer). Consumer Direct has more than fifteen years of experience in many different states assisting people to self-direct their supports and services.

As your employer, the parent's (or legal guardian's) role is to:

- Take on the responsibilities of being an employer.
- Recruit, hire, train, manage (supervise) and dismiss all employees.
- Complete Employment Agreements with all employees. These describe the services the employee will provide and the rate of pay.
- Determine a schedule and schedule employees.
- Submit time sheets only for the services approved on the Participant's Support and Spending Plan.
- Pay the employee directly (the Participant pays...the Idaho Self Direction Program does not pay) for any work performed that is not approved in the Participant's Support and Spending Plan.
- Approve and sign all time sheets.
- Make sure all signed time sheets are submitted to Consumer Direct on time.
- Treat employees consistently and fairly.
- Keep required records and receipts.

Completing the forms: The purpose of this Packet is to provide all the paperwork for an individual to become an employee of the Participant's family. The Employee Packet includes some forms that you fill out by yourself, and some you and the Participant's representative fill out together. If you have questions about filling out any forms, please call Consumer Direct right away so we can help. Our toll free number is 1-888-898-0470.

If you want more help, you also can stop by the Consumer Direct office in Meridian (address below) during business hours, Monday - Friday, 8:00 am - 5:00 pm.

Upon completion of the forms, please mail or fax them to Consumer Direct at:

Consumer Direct
280 E. Corporate Dr., Suite 210
Meridian, Idaho 83642-2953

Toll Free Fax: 1-877-898-0417
Fax: (208) 898-0417

It is very important that you complete these forms and return them to Consumer Direct as quickly as possible. You cannot start work for a Participant until you have been enrolled as an employee. When all enrollment forms are correctly completed and submitted, each employee/worker will receive an employee identification number. Consumer Direct will send you your number when it is assigned.

The forms in this Community Support Worker Employee Packet include:

1. New Employee Checklist: The New Employee Checklist lists all of the forms in the Employee Packet that you need to complete. Please use this checklist to keep track of which forms you have finished. As they are completed, the Participant's representative dates and initials each item in the list. They also sign the bottom of the form, when all paperwork has been completed. At the very bottom of the form, write the date the packet of forms was submitted to Consumer Direct.

2. Employee Data Form: The Employee Data Form is designed to gather basic information about you so we can enroll you as an employee and set your file up in Consumer Direct's payroll system. When filling in this form, please:

- ▶ Complete all of the blanks on the form as labeled (for example, name, physical address, mailing address, phone and so on).
- ▶ Check how you plan to turn in your time sheets (in the lower left hand corner).
- ▶ Let us know how you prefer for Consumer Direct to contact you. Place a check(s) in the box in the lower right to show how you want us to contact you.
- ▶ Sign and date the bottom of the form to indicate that all the information is correct.

The last part of the Employee Data Form is the bolded print at the bottom of the page. It reads: "If you complete an Employee Agreement you become an employee of the family. You will not be an employee of Consumer Direct." This is an important point. You are not an employee of Consumer Direct or the State of Idaho.

3. USCIS I-9 Employment Eligibility Verification: The purpose of this form is to document that you are authorized to work in the United States. Section 1 of the form is filled out by you, the employee. Section 2 of the form is completed by your employer, the Participant's representative. The directions for completing the I-9 are included with the form in the packet.

4. IRS W-4 Form: The W-4 form needs to be completed so that the correct amount of federal income tax can be withheld from your pay check. The directions are at the top of the form. The "Personal Allowances Worksheet" in the middle of the page is a way to figure out how many allowances you claim in box 5 on the W-4 form. There are rules to follow in deciding how many allowances you can claim. The smaller the number of allowances you claim, the more taxes will be withheld from your pay check. This means you receive less take home pay. For example, if you claim "0" or "1", more will be withheld.

5. Pay Selection Form: The purpose of this form is for you to choose how you receive payment for the time you work. Consumer Direct offers three pay options: (1) direct deposit to your bank or credit union account, (2) direct deposit to a Visa pay card, or (3) paper check. Please read the descriptions of each before placing a checkmark in the box next to your selection. If you choose direct deposit to a bank or credit union account, please provide your account information as requested, and attached a voided check or other documentation from your bank/credit union confirming your account and routing numbers (please note, a deposit slip is not acceptable for this purpose). Don't forget to sign and date the form.

6. Employment Relationship Disclosure Form: Most employees must pay taxes (Social Security, Medicare, State and Federal Income). The purpose of this form is to determine whether your relationship with the Participant makes you an employee who is exempt from paying certain taxes. Please check the box in item 1 to indicate your relationship to the Participant/FEIN holder, review the explanations in item 2, and sign and date the bottom of the form.

7. Medicaid-Community Support Worker Agreement: This Agreement is a State form which a person must review and sign to enroll as a Participant's employee. You agree that the Participant will pay you only for work done in accordance with program rules and the Participant-Community Support Worker Employment Agreement (described below). To complete the Agreement: print your name on page 1. Check the correct box to indicate if you are connected with an agency. Review the form carefully, and sign and date on page two. The employee's signature indicates that he/she agrees with the conditions outlined in the Agreement.

8. Participant-Community Support Worker Employment Agreement: This is the State form that the employee completes with the Participant to document the specific services the employee will perform. It also documents how often and how long the employee is to provide each service as well as the rate of pay.

9. Criminal History Check – Waiver of Liability – Assumption of Risk: This State form is ONLY REQUIRED IF the Participant’s representative wishes to waive the employee from being subject to a criminal history check prior to providing service. On the form, the Participant’s representative will need to document the reason for the waiver as well as how they will maintain their health and safety.

10. Criminal History Check – Waiver of Liability – Assumption of Risk – Failed Criminal History Check: This State form is ONLY REQUIRED IF an employee has failed a criminal history check, yet the Participant’s representative still wishes for this person to be their employee. On the form, the Participant’s representative will need to document the reason for the waiver as well as how they will maintain their health and safety.

ADDITIONAL FORMS AND INSRUCTIONS: provided during enrollment, available upon request and available online at <http://consumerdirectid.com/forms>.

1. Status Change Form: This form is used to tell Consumer Direct if there is new information about a program participant, a participant’s representative or an employee. It is important that employees notify Consumer Direct of any change in name, address or phone number to ensure there are no interruptions in pay. This is done by completing and submitting the Status Change Form to Consumer Direct’s office by fax or mail. Don’t forget to sign and date the form.

2. Termination Form: The Termination Form serves two purposes. It notifies Consumer Direct when the Participant has terminated an employee or when the employee has decided to stop working for the Participant. It also provides information about where the employee’s last check should be sent and any special instructions about the last check. It will be completed as necessary for an employee. The label in each box clearly indicates what information that should be included. The Employer and employee together complete this form, sign and date it at the bottom. Then the Employer submits the form to Consumer Direct.

3. Feedback Form: Consumer Direct always is interested in feedback from you. Your feedback helps us improve our services. We want to hear about things that worked well for you (compliments or comments), ideas you have for doing things better and any concerns you have with our services. To give us feedback you can:

- ▶ Call a Program Coordinator in Idaho (toll-free 1-888-898-0470).
- ▶ Fill out the Feedback Form and mail it or fax it to the Consumer Direct office.
- ▶ Contact the Idaho Consumer Direct Program Manager (toll-free 1-888-898-0470), if your feedback is about the Program Coordinator or if you talked with the Program Coordinator first, but you would like to talk with someone else.

PLEASE, if you are unhappy (dissatisfied) about something involving Consumer Direct, let us know right away. Don’t let the problem become bigger. We will try to work out the problem with you.

TIMESHEETS. A timesheet must be completed to report the hours an employee works. Employees have two options for submitting timesheets, paper or electronic.

4. Online Timesheet Instructions: Follow the instructions for submitting time online. Consumer Direct strongly recommends the use of our online time cards available through a secure website, MyDirectCare.com (this site is also referred to as a “web portal”). Online time entry and approval provides an efficient and error-minimizing way to enter time into the Consumer Direct payroll system. Through this process, the employee enters work shift information onto an electronic time card. At the end of the payroll cycle when timesheets would normally be due, the Employer will log into the system and approve the employee’s time. Once time has been approved by the Employer, it can be processed and paid by Consumer Direct.

Online time submittal means no more mailing or faxing paper timesheets to the Consumer Direct office.

5. Paper Timesheets: For employees who choose to use paper timesheets, timesheets (and instructions) are available upon request and can be downloaded from the Consumer Direct website at: <http://consumerdirectid.com/forms>

6. Paper Timesheet Instructions: Please follow the instructions when filling out a timesheet. Remember, an employee can only be paid through this program for services that are approved in the Participant’s Support and Spending Plan. The hours worked must be for services that are outlined on the Participant-Community Support Worker Employment Agreement or Participant-Support Broker Employment Agreement.

You and the Participant both sign the timesheet to show that it is correct. After the timesheet is finished, it should be submitted to Consumer Direct by mail or fax by the deadline indicated on the form. Our address and toll-free fax number is provided on the bottom of the timesheet.

If you prefer, you can drop off time sheets at the Consumer Direct office. A drop box (mail slot) is available for after-hours use.

7. Payroll Schedule: The Payroll Schedule shows when time sheets are due. This is the date paper time sheets must be mailed, faxed or dropped off at Consumer Direct and when electronic time sheets must be approved by the employer. Time sheets must be submitted by midnight on the Monday following the pay period. The Payroll Schedule also shows the date and day for pay day. Pay days occur every two weeks and are always on a Friday. Employees are paid by check, direct deposit or pay card.

Remember, any time sheet received by Consumer Direct after the Payroll Schedule due date (Monday by midnight) will be paid on the following pay date.

Form I-9
OMB No. 1615-0047
Expires 03/31/2016

Read all instructions carefully before completing this form.

Anti-Discrimination Notice. It is illegal to discriminate against any work-authorized individual in hiring, discharge, recruitment or referral for a fee, or in the employment eligibility verification (Form I-9 and E-Verify) process based on that individual's citizenship status, immigration status or national origin. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because the documentation presented has a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination. For more information, call the Office of Special Counsel for Immigration-Related Unfair Employment Practices (OSC) at 1-800-255-7688 (employees), 1-800-255-8155 (employers), or 1-800-237-2515 (TDD), or visit www.justice.gov/crt/about/osc.

What Is the Purpose of This Form?

Employers must complete Form I-9 to document verification of the identity and employment authorization of each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 6, 1986, to work in the United States. In the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI), employers must complete Form I-9 to document verification of the identity and employment authorization of each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 27, 2011. Employers should have used Form I-9 CNMI between November 28, 2009 and November 27, 2011.

General Instructions

Employers are responsible for completing and retaining Form I-9. For the purpose of completing this form, the term "employer" means all employers, including those recruiters and referrers for a fee who are agricultural associations, agricultural employers, or farm labor contractors.

Form I-9 is made up of three sections. Employers may be fined if the form is not complete. Employers are responsible for retaining completed forms. Do not mail completed forms to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) or Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

Section 1. Employee Information and Attestation

Newly hired employees must complete and sign Section 1 of Form I-9 no later than the first day of employment. Section 1 should never be completed before the employee has accepted a job offer.

Provide the following information to complete Section 1:

Name: Provide your full legal last name, first name, and middle initial. Your last name is your family name or surname. If you have two last names or a hyphenated last name, include both names in the last name field. Your first name is your given name. Your middle initial is the first letter of your second given name, or the first letter of your middle name, if any.

Other names used: Provide all other names used, if any (including maiden name). If you have had no other legal names, write "N/A."

Address: Provide the address where you currently live, including Street Number and Name, Apartment Number (if applicable), City, State, and Zip Code. Do not provide a post office box address (P.O. Box). Only border commuters from Canada or Mexico may use an international address in this field.

Date of Birth: Provide your date of birth in the mm/dd/yyyy format. For example, January 23, 1950, should be written as 01/23/1950.

U.S. Social Security Number: Provide your 9-digit Social Security number. Providing your Social Security number is voluntary. However, if your employer participates in E-Verify, you must provide your Social Security number.

E-mail Address and Telephone Number (Optional): You may provide your e-mail address and telephone number. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) may contact you if DHS learns of a potential mismatch between the information provided and the information in DHS or Social Security Administration (SSA) records. You may write "N/A" if you choose not to provide this information.

All employees must attest in Section 1, under penalty of perjury, to their citizenship or immigration status by checking one of the following four boxes provided on the form:

1. A citizen of the United States

2. A noncitizen national of the United States: Noncitizen nationals of the United States are persons born in American Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad.

3. A lawful permanent resident: A lawful permanent resident is any person who is not a U.S. citizen and who resides in the United States under legally recognized and lawfully recorded permanent residence as an immigrant. The term "lawful permanent resident" includes conditional residents. If you check this box, write either your Alien Registration Number (A-Number) or USCIS Number in the field next to your selection. At this time, the USCIS Number is the same as the A-Number without the "A" prefix.

4. An alien authorized to work: If you are not a citizen or national of the United States or a lawful permanent resident, but are authorized to work in the United States, check this box.

If you check this box:

- a. Record the date that your employment authorization expires, if any. Aliens whose employment authorization does not expire, such as refugees, asylees, and certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, or Palau, may write "N/A" on this line.
- b. Next, enter your Alien Registration Number (A-Number)/USCIS Number. At this time, the USCIS Number is the same as your A-Number without the "A" prefix. If you have not received an A-Number/USCIS Number, record your Admission Number. You can find your Admission Number on Form I-94, "Arrival-Departure Record," or as directed by USCIS or U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CPB).
 - (1) If you obtained your admission number from CBP in connection with your arrival in the United States, then also record information about the foreign passport you used to enter the United States (number and country of issuance).
 - (2) If you obtained your admission number from USCIS within the United States, or you entered the United States without a foreign passport, you must write "N/A" in the Foreign Passport Number and Country of Issuance fields.

Sign your name in the "Signature of Employee" block and record the date you completed and signed Section 1. By signing and dating this form, you attest that the citizenship or immigration status you selected is correct and that you are aware that you may be imprisoned and/or fined for making false statements or using false documentation when completing this form. To fully complete this form, you must present to your employer documentation that establishes your identity and employment authorization. Choose which documents to present from the Lists of Acceptable Documents, found on the last page of this form. You must present this documentation no later than the third day after beginning employment, although you may present the required documentation before this date.

Preparer and/or Translator Certification

The Preparer and/or Translator Certification must be completed if the employee requires assistance to complete Section 1 (e.g., the employee needs the instructions or responses translated, someone other than the employee fills out the information blocks, or someone with disabilities needs additional assistance). The employee must still sign Section 1.

Minors and Certain Employees with Disabilities (Special Placement)

Parents or legal guardians assisting minors (individuals under 18) and certain employees with disabilities should review the guidelines in the Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9 (M-274) on www.uscis.gov/I-9Central before completing Section 1. These individuals have special procedures for establishing identity if they cannot present an identity document for Form I-9. The special procedures include (1) the parent or legal guardian filling out Section 1 and writing "minor under age 18" or "special placement," whichever applies, in the employee signature block; and (2) the employer writing "minor under age 18" or "special placement" under List B in Section 2.

Section 2. Employer or Authorized Representative Review and Verification

Before completing Section 2, employers must ensure that Section 1 is completed properly and on time. Employers may not ask an individual to complete Section 1 before he or she has accepted a job offer.

Employers or their authorized representative must complete Section 2 by examining evidence of identity and employment authorization within 3 business days of the employee's first day of employment. For example, if an employee begins employment on Monday, the employer must complete Section 2 by Thursday of that week. However, if an employer hires an individual for less than 3 business days, Section 2 must be completed no later than the first day of employment. An employer may complete Form I-9 before the first day of employment if the employer has offered the individual a job and the individual has accepted.

Employers cannot specify which document(s) employees may present from the Lists of Acceptable Documents, found on the last page of Form I-9, to establish identity and employment authorization. Employees must present one selection from List A OR a combination of one selection from List B and one selection from List C. List A contains documents that show both identity and employment authorization. Some List A documents are combination documents. The employee must present combination documents together to be considered a List A document. For example, a foreign passport and a Form I-94 containing an endorsement of the alien's nonimmigrant status must be presented together to be considered a List A document. List B contains documents that show identity only, and List C contains documents that show employment authorization only. If an employee presents a List A document, he or she should not present a List B and List C document, and vice versa. If an employer participates in E-Verify, the List B document must include a photograph.

In the field below the Section 2 introduction, employers must enter the last name, first name and middle initial, if any, that the employee entered in Section 1. This will help to identify the pages of the form should they get separated.

Employers or their authorized representative must:

1. Physically examine each original document the employee presents to determine if it reasonably appears to be genuine and to relate to the person presenting it. The person who examines the documents must be the same person who signs Section 2. The examiner of the documents and the employee must both be physically present during the examination of the employee's documents.
2. Record the document title shown on the Lists of Acceptable Documents, issuing authority, document number and expiration date (if any) from the original document(s) the employee presents. You may write "N/A" in any unused fields.

If the employee is a student or exchange visitor who presented a foreign passport with a Form I-94, the employer should also enter in Section 2:

- a. The student's Form I-20 or DS-2019 number (Student and Exchange Visitor Information System-SEVIS Number); and the program end date from Form I-20 or DS-2019.
3. Under Certification, enter the employee's first day of employment. Temporary staffing agencies may enter the first day the employee was placed in a job pool. Recruiters and recruiters for a fee do not enter the employee's first day of employment.
4. Provide the name and title of the person completing Section 2 in the Signature of Employer or Authorized Representative field.
5. Sign and date the attestation on the date Section 2 is completed.
6. Record the employer's business name and address.
7. Return the employee's documentation.

Employers may, but are not required to, photocopy the document(s) presented. If photocopies are made, they should be made for ALL new hires or reverifications. Photocopies must be retained and presented with Form I-9 in case of an inspection by DHS or other federal government agency. Employers must always complete Section 2 even if they photocopy an employee's document(s). Making photocopies of an employee's document(s) cannot take the place of completing Form I-9. Employers are still responsible for completing and retaining Form I-9.

Unexpired Documents

Generally, only unexpired, original documentation is acceptable. The only exception is that an employee may present a certified copy of a birth certificate. Additionally, in some instances, a document that appears to be expired may be acceptable if the expiration date shown on the face of the document has been extended, such as for individuals with temporary protected status. Refer to the Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9 (M-274) or I-9 Central (www.uscis.gov/I-9Central) for examples.

Receipts

If an employee is unable to present a required document (or documents), the employee can present an acceptable receipt in lieu of a document from the Lists of Acceptable Documents on the last page of this form. Receipts showing that a person has applied for an initial grant of employment authorization, or for renewal of employment authorization, are not acceptable. Employers cannot accept receipts if employment will last less than 3 days. Receipts are acceptable when completing Form I-9 for a new hire or when reverification is required.

Employees must present receipts within 3 business days of their first day of employment, or in the case of reverification, by the date that reverification is required, and must present valid replacement documents within the time frames described below.

There are three types of acceptable receipts:

1. A receipt showing that the employee has applied to replace a document that was lost, stolen or damaged. The employee must present the actual document within 90 days from the date of hire.
2. The arrival portion of Form I-94/I-94A with a temporary I-551 stamp and a photograph of the individual. The employee must present the actual Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551) by the expiration date of the temporary I-551 stamp, or, if there is no expiration date, within 1 year from the date of issue.
3. The departure portion of Form I-94/I-94A with a refugee admission stamp. The employee must present an unexpired Employment Authorization Document (Form I-766) or a combination of a List B document and an unrestricted Social Security card within 90 days.

When the employee provides an acceptable receipt, the employer should:

1. Record the document title in Section 2 under the sections titled List A, List B, or List C, as applicable.
2. Write the word "receipt" and its document number in the "Document Number" field. Record the last day that the receipt is valid in the "Expiration Date" field.

By the end of the receipt validity period, the employer should:

1. Cross out the word "receipt" and any accompanying document number and expiration date.
2. Record the number and other required document information from the actual document presented.
3. Initial and date the change.

See the Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9 (M-274) at www.uscis.gov/I-9Central for more information on receipts.

Section 3. Reverification and Rehires

Employers or their authorized representatives should complete Section 3 when reverifying that an employee is authorized to work. When rehiring an employee within 3 years of the date Form I-9 was originally completed, employers have the option to complete a new Form I-9 or complete Section 3. When completing Section 3 in either a reverification or rehire situation, if the employee's name has changed, record the name change in Block A.

For employees who provide an employment authorization expiration date in Section 1, employers must reverify employment authorization on or before the date provided.

Some employees may write "N/A" in the space provided for the expiration date in Section 1 if they are aliens whose employment authorization does not expire (e.g., asylees, refugees, certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, or Palau). Reverification does not apply for such employees unless they chose to present evidence of employment authorization in Section 2 that contains an expiration date and requires reverification, such as Form I-766, Employment Authorization Document.

Reverification applies if evidence of employment authorization (List A or List C document) presented in Section 2 expires. However, employers should not reverify:

1. U.S. citizens and noncitizen nationals; or
2. Lawful permanent residents who presented a Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551) for Section 2.

Reverification does not apply to List B documents.

If both Section 1 and Section 2 indicate expiration dates triggering the reverification requirement, the employer should reverify by the earlier date.

For reverification, an employee must present unexpired documentation from either List A or List C showing he or she is still authorized to work. Employers CANNOT require the employee to present a particular document from List A or List C. The employee may choose which document to present.

To complete Section 3, employers should follow these instructions:

1. Complete Block A if an employee's name has changed at the time you complete Section 3.
2. Complete Block B with the date of rehire if you rehire an employee within 3 years of the date this form was originally completed, and the employee is still authorized to be employed on the same basis as previously indicated on this form. Also complete the "Signature of Employer or Authorized Representative" block.
3. Complete Block C if:
 - a. The employment authorization or employment authorization document of a current employee is about to expire and requires reverification; or
 - b. You rehire an employee within 3 years of the date this form was originally completed and his or her employment authorization or employment authorization document has expired. (Complete Block B for this employee as well.)

To complete Block C:

- a. Examine either a List A or List C document the employee presents that shows that the employee is currently authorized to work in the United States; and
 - b. Record the document title, document number, and expiration date (if any).
4. After completing block A, B or C, complete the "Signature of Employer or Authorized Representative" block, including the date.

For reverification purposes, employers may either complete Section 3 of a new Form I-9 or Section 3 of the previously completed Form I-9. Any new pages of Form I-9 completed during reverification must be attached to the employee's original Form I-9. If you choose to complete Section 3 of a new Form I-9, you may attach just the page containing Section 3, with the employee's name entered at the top of the page, to the employee's original Form I-9. If there is a more current version of Form I-9 at the time of reverification, you must complete Section 3 of that version of the form.

What Is the Filing Fee?

There is no fee for completing Form I-9. This form is not filed with USCIS or any government agency. Form I-9 must be retained by the employer and made available for inspection by U.S. Government officials as specified in the "USCIS Privacy Act Statement" below.

Form W-4 (2014)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2014 expires February 17, 2015. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,000 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions do not apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2014. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

For Savings Accounts: provide a document from your bank with exact numbers to process direct deposits to your account. If the document is larger than a standard-sized check, please provide a separate document. Do not attach a deposit slip because it does not have all the necessary numbers.

I authorize Consumer Direct to process my selected method of pay as indicated. In the event that funds are deposited mistakenly to my account, I authorize Consumer Direct to debit my account to correct the error. It is my responsibility to confirm that each deposit has occurred and to pay any fees caused by overdrafts on my account. Deposits will be made on each payday unless I notify my employer, in writing, of my request to stop direct deposits. I understand that Consumer Direct reserves the right to refuse any direct deposit request, that all direct deposits are made through an Automated Clearing House (ACH), and that the processing is subject to ACH terms and limitations, as well as those of my financial institution. I understand that I may still receive a paper check while my selected method of pay is being set up.

The parties mutually agree that CSW is an employee of the Participant and is not an employee of the SDCS Option or the Fiscal Employer Agent (FEA), and agree that the CSW is not entitled to nor will make claim for any employee benefits from the SDCS Option or the FEA, including but not limited to, worker's compensation, disability, life or health insurance.
6. The CSW agrees to notify the Participant immediately in the event he/she is unable to provide the agreed services due to sickness, injury or personal emergency. The CSW must obtain the Participant's written approval in advance for any pre-planned absence.
7. The Participant shall train the CSW on the duties and responsibilities of the CSW and shall be responsible for approving the accuracy of CSW's time records.
8. The CSW agrees to provide services in a safe, courteous and professional manner. The CSW acknowledges that any physical, sexual or mental abuse or neglect of the Participant by the CSW will result in the immediate termination of this Agreement and a report being made according to the requirements in Section 39-5303, Idaho Code.

9. The CSW agrees to report any observed physical, sexual or mental abuse, exploitation or neglect of Participant to adult protection authorities immediately.

10. The CSW understands and agrees that they cannot provide or bill for services until:

- an authorized Support and Spending Plan has been submitted to the FEA,
- the signed Employment Agreement has been submitted to the FEA
- the signed Medicaid-CSW Agreement has been submitted to the FEA

11. The CSW understands and agrees that no payment for services will be made until both the CSW and the Participant have signed the appropriate time sheets, acknowledging their accuracy, and have submitted them to the FEA.

12. It is mutually understood that Medicaid funding can only pay for services rendered. Under the Self Direction Waiver option, the CSW will not receive payment for any vacation time, holiday time, overtime or sick time. Medicaid will not pay wages at an hourly amount in excess of this agreement.

More than forty (40) hours per week of paid work are allowed only if the CSW meets the criteria for employees that are exempted from overtime pay and minimum wage requirements as per the Fair Labor Standards Act.

The participant must obtain and follow guidance from the Idaho Department of Labor and Commerce to determine if the CSW is exempt from these requirements. It is the responsibility of the participant to ensure that the CSW is exempt if the participant requires the CSW to work more than forty (40) hours per week.

The CSW will be paid only for the specific services authorized as per the Support and Spending Plan.

The signing of this Employment Agreement by the participant and the CSW signifies that the parties acknowledge that the criteria for exemption from overtime and minimum wage requirements will be met prior to scheduling work hours in excess of forty (40) hours per week or agreeing to wages less than minimum wage standards.

Dear Community Support Worker,

The following is information regarding the new Affordable Care Act related Health Insurance Marketplace. Key parts of the health care law took effect in 2014; as a result, there is a new way to buy health insurance: the Health Insurance Marketplace.

The annual Open Enrollment Period for the Health Insurance Marketplace is usually scheduled to begin on November 15th each year for coverage starting January 1st of each year. This is the one time of year where you can apply for private health insurance coverage through the marketplace. To confirm Open Enrollment Period dates for this year, please contact www.HealthCare.gov. NOTE: You can apply for Medicaid or CHIP (Children's Health Insurance Program) any time of year.

To assist you as you evaluate options for you and your family, this information sheet provides some basic information about the new Marketplace.

If you have any questions about healthcare reform or the online application process, please contact the Health Insurance Marketplace Call Center at 1-800-318-2596 or visit www.HealthCare.gov.

Thank you,
Human Resources Department
for Consumer Direct and the Consumer Direct Family of Companies

Health Care Marketplace

PART A: General Information

What is the Health Insurance Marketplace?

The Marketplace is designed to help you find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget. The Marketplace offers "one-stop shopping" to find and compare private health insurance options. You may also be eligible for a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premium right away.

Can I Save Money on my Health Insurance Premiums in the Marketplace?

You may qualify to save money and lower your monthly premium, but only if your employer does not offer coverage, or offers coverage that doesn't meet certain standards. The savings on your premium that you're eligible for depends on your household income.

Does Employer Health Coverage Affect Eligibility for Premium Savings through the Marketplace?

Yes. If you have an offer of health coverage from your employer that meets certain standards, you will not be eligible for a tax credit through the Marketplace and may wish to enroll in your employer's health plan. However, you may be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium, or a reduction in certain cost-sharing if your employer does not offer coverage to you at all or does not offer coverage that meets certain standards. If the cost of a plan from your employer that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.5% of your household income for the year, or if the coverage your employer provides does not meet the "minimum value" standard set by the Affordable Care Act, you may be eligible for a tax credit ¹.

¹ An employer-sponsored health plan meets the "minimum value standard" if the plan's share of the total allowed benefit costs covered by the plan is no less than 60 percent of such costs.

How Can I Get More Information?

The Marketplace can help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the Marketplace and its cost. Please call 1-800-318-2596 or visit HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and contact information for a Health Insurance Marketplace in your area.

PART B: Information About Health Coverage Offered by Your Employer

In the Idaho self-directed care model, the Participant is the employer of record and the managing employer. Health insurance is not being offered by your employer. You and your family may be able to obtain health coverage through the Marketplace, with a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premiums and with assistance for out-of-pocket costs.

Medicaid Coverage

In all states, Medicaid provides health coverage for some low-income people, families and children, pregnant women, the elderly, and people with disabilities. Idaho has chosen not to expand its Medicaid program at this time. You might not qualify for Medicaid or reduced costs on a private insurance plan; it will depend on where your income falls. Even though Idaho hasn't expanded Medicaid coverage, you should still apply. The Medicaid program provides health coverage to millions of lower-income individuals and families today. You may qualify under your state's existing rules.

There are two (2) ways that you can find out whether you qualify for Medicaid in Idaho:

- Contact your state Medicaid agency online at www.healthandwelfare.idaho.gov or call their Customer Service Center at 1-877-456-1233.
- Fill out an application for coverage in the Health Insurance Marketplace at www.healthcare.gov/marketplace.

If you live in Idaho, you'll use www.HealthCare.gov to apply and enroll in health coverage. For more information on resources available in your state, visit www.healthandwelfare.idaho.gov

PARTICIPANT-SUPPORT BROKER EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This agreement is hereby made between _____ a participant of the Self-Directed Community Supports (SDCS) Option, a Medicaid option administered by the Department of Health and Welfare (department), and _____, a Support Broker.

The participant wants to hire the support broker for services under the Self-Directed Community Supports Option. In exchange, the support broker wants to be paid for the services provided to the participant. Both parties understand and agree that payment is made through a fiscal employer agent (FEA), using Medicaid monies and based on time sheets submitted by the support broker and approved by the employer, who is the participant.

To these mutual purposes, the parties promise and agree as follows:

1. Support broker services are to be provided in accordance with “Participant-Support Broker Agreement”, and the Self-Directed Community Supports rules, according to the Idaho Administrative Procedures Act (IDAPA) 16.03.13, “Consumer-Directed Services.”
2. The support broker is hired to help the participant, and assumes no responsibility for the participant’s conduct.
3. That the support broker is an employee of the participant and not an employee of the Self-Directed Community Support Option or the FEA, and agree that the support broker is not entitled to, nor will make claim for any employee benefits from the Self-Directed Community Support Option or the FEA, including but not limited to, worker’s compensation, disability, life insurance, or health insurance.
4. The support broker will take all actions necessary to become the participant’s employee, and to maintain the employment relationship by submitting necessary documents to the FEA, including:

 - A completed criminal history check, including clearance in accordance with IDAPA 16.05.06, "Criminal History and Background Checks".

The support broker will provide all required support broker duties outlined in Subsection 136.02 of IDAPA 16.03.13, “Consumer-Directed Services” and, as mutually agreed upon with the participant, the optional support broker duties outlined in Subsection 136.03 of IDAPA 16.03.13, “Consumer-Directed Services.”

6. The support broker's wage is not to exceed $18.72 per hour. What Is the Purpose of This Form?

Employers must complete Form I-9 to document verification of the identity and employment authorization of each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 6, 1986, to work in the United States. In the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI), employers must complete Form I-9 to document verification of the identity and employment authorization of each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 27, 2011. Employers should have used Form I-9 CNMI between November 28, 2009 and November 27, 2011.

General Instructions

Employers are responsible for completing and retaining Form I-9. For the purpose of completing this form, the term "employer" means all employers, including those recruiters and referrers for a fee who are agricultural associations, agricultural employers, or farm labor contractors.

Form I-9 is made up of three sections. Employers may be fined if the form is not complete. Employers are responsible for retaining completed forms. Do not mail completed forms to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) or Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

Section 1. Employee Information and Attestation

Newly hired employees must complete and sign Section 1 of Form I-9 no later than the first day of employment. Section 1 should never be completed before the employee has accepted a job offer.

Provide the following information to complete Section 1:

Name: Provide your full legal last name, first name, and middle initial. Your last name is your family name or surname. If you have two last names or a hyphenated last name, include both names in the last name field. Your first name is your given name. Your middle initial is the first letter of your second given name, or the first letter of your middle name, if any.

Other names used: Provide all other names used, if any (including maiden name). If you have had no other legal names, write "N/A."

Address: Provide the address where you currently live, including Street Number and Name, Apartment Number (if applicable), City, State, and Zip Code. Do not provide a post office box address (P.O. Box). Only border commuters from Canada or Mexico may use an international address in this field.

Date of Birth: Provide your date of birth in the mm/dd/yyyy format. For example, January 23, 1950, should be written as 01/23/1950.

U.S. Social Security Number: Provide your 9-digit Social Security number. Providing your Social Security number is voluntary. However, if your employer participates in E-Verify, you must provide your Social Security number.

E-mail Address and Telephone Number (Optional): You may provide your e-mail address and telephone number. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) may contact you if DHS learns of a potential mismatch between the information provided and the information in DHS or Social Security Administration (SSA) records. You may write "N/A" if you choose not to provide this information.

All employees must attest in Section 1, under penalty of perjury, to their citizenship or immigration status by checking one of the following four boxes provided on the form:

1. A citizen of the United States

2. A noncitizen national of the United States: Noncitizen nationals of the United States are persons born in American Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad.

3. A lawful permanent resident: A lawful permanent resident is any person who is not a U.S. citizen and who resides in the United States under legally recognized and lawfully recorded permanent residence as an immigrant. The term "lawful permanent resident" includes conditional residents. If you check this box, write either your Alien Registration Number (A-Number) or USCIS Number in the field next to your selection. At this time, the USCIS Number is the same as the A-Number without the "A" prefix.

4. An alien authorized to work: If you are not a citizen or national of the United States or a lawful permanent resident, but are authorized to work in the United States, check this box.

If you check this box:

- a. Record the date that your employment authorization expires, if any. Aliens whose employment authorization does not expire, such as refugees, asylees, and certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, or Palau, may write "N/A" on this line.
- b. Next, enter your Alien Registration Number (A-Number)/USCIS Number. At this time, the USCIS Number is the same as your A-Number without the "A" prefix. If you have not received an A-Number/USCIS Number, record your Admission Number. You can find your Admission Number on Form I-94, "Arrival-Departure Record," or as directed by USCIS or U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CPB).
 - (1) If you obtained your admission number from CBP in connection with your arrival in the United States, then also record information about the foreign passport you used to enter the United States (number and country of issuance).
 - (2) If you obtained your admission number from USCIS within the United States, or you entered the United States without a foreign passport, you must write "N/A" in the Foreign Passport Number and Country of Issuance fields.

Sign your name in the "Signature of Employee" block and record the date you completed and signed Section 1. By signing and dating this form, you attest that the citizenship or immigration status you selected is correct and that you are aware that you may be imprisoned and/or fined for making false statements or using false documentation when completing this form. To fully complete this form, you must present to your employer documentation that establishes your identity and employment authorization. Choose which documents to present from the Lists of Acceptable Documents, found on the last page of this form. You must present this documentation no later than the third day after beginning employment, although you may present the required documentation before this date.

Preparer and/or Translator Certification

The Preparer and/or Translator Certification must be completed if the employee requires assistance to complete Section 1 (e.g., the employee needs the instructions or responses translated, someone other than the employee fills out the information blocks, or someone with disabilities needs additional assistance). The employee must still sign Section 1.

Minors and Certain Employees with Disabilities (Special Placement)

Parents or legal guardians assisting minors (individuals under 18) and certain employees with disabilities should review the guidelines in the Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9 (M-274) on www.uscis.gov/I-9Central before completing Section 1. These individuals have special procedures for establishing identity if they cannot present an identity document for Form I-9. The special procedures include (1) the parent or legal guardian filling out Section 1 and writing "minor under age 18" or "special placement," whichever applies, in the employee signature block; and (2) the employer writing "minor under age 18" or "special placement" under List B in Section 2.

Section 2. Employer or Authorized Representative Review and Verification

Before completing Section 2, employers must ensure that Section 1 is completed properly and on time. Employers may not ask an individual to complete Section 1 before he or she has accepted a job offer.

Employers or their authorized representative must complete Section 2 by examining evidence of identity and employment authorization within 3 business days of the employee's first day of employment. For example, if an employee begins employment on Monday, the employer must complete Section 2 by Thursday of that week. However, if an employer hires an individual for less than 3 business days, Section 2 must be completed no later than the first day of employment. An employer may complete Form I-9 before the first day of employment if the employer has offered the individual a job and the individual has accepted.

Employers cannot specify which document(s) employees may present from the Lists of Acceptable Documents, found on the last page of Form I-9, to establish identity and employment authorization. Employees must present one selection from List A OR a combination of one selection from List B and one selection from List C. List A contains documents that show both identity and employment authorization. Some List A documents are combination documents. The employee must present combination documents together to be considered a List A document. For example, a foreign passport and a Form I-94 containing an endorsement of the alien's nonimmigrant status must be presented together to be considered a List A document. List B contains documents that show identity only, and List C contains documents that show employment authorization only. If an employee presents a List A document, he or she should not present a List B and List C document, and vice versa. If an employer participates in E-Verify, the List B document must include a photograph.

In the field below the Section 2 introduction, employers must enter the last name, first name and middle initial, if any, that the employee entered in Section 1. This will help to identify the pages of the form should they get separated.

Employers or their authorized representative must:

1. Physically examine each original document the employee presents to determine if it reasonably appears to be genuine and to relate to the person presenting it. The person who examines the documents must be the same person who signs Section 2. The examiner of the documents and the employee must both be physically present during the examination of the employee's documents.
2. Record the document title shown on the Lists of Acceptable Documents, issuing authority, document number and expiration date (if any) from the original document(s) the employee presents. You may write "N/A" in any unused fields.

If the employee is a student or exchange visitor who presented a foreign passport with a Form I-94, the employer should also enter in Section 2:

- a. The student's Form I-20 or DS-2019 number (Student and Exchange Visitor Information System-SEVIS Number); and the program end date from Form I-20 or DS-2019.
3. Under Certification, enter the employee's first day of employment. Temporary staffing agencies may enter the first day the employee was placed in a job pool. Recruiters and recruiters for a fee do not enter the employee's first day of employment.
4. Provide the name and title of the person completing Section 2 in the Signature of Employer or Authorized Representative field.
5. Sign and date the attestation on the date Section 2 is completed.
6. Record the employer's business name and address.
7. Return the employee's documentation.

Employers may, but are not required to, photocopy the document(s) presented. If photocopies are made, they should be made for ALL new hires or reverifications. Photocopies must be retained and presented with Form I-9 in case of an inspection by DHS or other federal government agency. Employers must always complete Section 2 even if they photocopy an employee's document(s). Making photocopies of an employee's document(s) cannot take the place of completing Form I-9. Employers are still responsible for completing and retaining Form I-9.

Unexpired Documents

Generally, only unexpired, original documentation is acceptable. The only exception is that an employee may present a certified copy of a birth certificate. Additionally, in some instances, a document that appears to be expired may be acceptable if the expiration date shown on the face of the document has been extended, such as for individuals with temporary protected status. Refer to the Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9 (M-274) or I-9 Central (www.uscis.gov/I-9Central) for examples.

Receipts

If an employee is unable to present a required document (or documents), the employee can present an acceptable receipt in lieu of a document from the Lists of Acceptable Documents on the last page of this form. Receipts showing that a person has applied for an initial grant of employment authorization, or for renewal of employment authorization, are not acceptable. Employers cannot accept receipts if employment will last less than 3 days. Receipts are acceptable when completing Form I-9 for a new hire or when reverification is required.

Employees must present receipts within 3 business days of their first day of employment, or in the case of reverification, by the date that reverification is required, and must present valid replacement documents within the time frames described below.

There are three types of acceptable receipts:

1. A receipt showing that the employee has applied to replace a document that was lost, stolen or damaged. The employee must present the actual document within 90 days from the date of hire.
2. The arrival portion of Form I-94/I-94A with a temporary I-551 stamp and a photograph of the individual. The employee must present the actual Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551) by the expiration date of the temporary I-551 stamp, or, if there is no expiration date, within 1 year from the date of issue.
3. The departure portion of Form I-94/I-94A with a refugee admission stamp. The employee must present an unexpired Employment Authorization Document (Form I-766) or a combination of a List B document and an unrestricted Social Security card within 90 days.

When the employee provides an acceptable receipt, the employer should:

1. Record the document title in Section 2 under the sections titled List A, List B, or List C, as applicable.
2. Write the word "receipt" and its document number in the "Document Number" field. Record the last day that the receipt is valid in the "Expiration Date" field.

By the end of the receipt validity period, the employer should:

1. Cross out the word "receipt" and any accompanying document number and expiration date.
2. Record the number and other required document information from the actual document presented.
3. Initial and date the change.

See the Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9 (M-274) at www.uscis.gov/I-9Central for more information on receipts.

Section 3. Reverification and Rehires

Employers or their authorized representatives should complete Section 3 when reverifying that an employee is authorized to work. When rehiring an employee within 3 years of the date Form I-9 was originally completed, employers have the option to complete a new Form I-9 or complete Section 3. When completing Section 3 in either a reverification or rehire situation, if the employee's name has changed, record the name change in Block A.

For employees who provide an employment authorization expiration date in Section 1, employers must reverify employment authorization on or before the date provided.

Some employees may write "N/A" in the space provided for the expiration date in Section 1 if they are aliens whose employment authorization does not expire (e.g., asylees, refugees, certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, or Palau). Reverification does not apply for such employees unless they chose to present evidence of employment authorization in Section 2 that contains an expiration date and requires reverification, such as Form I-766, Employment Authorization Document.

Reverification applies if evidence of employment authorization (List A or List C document) presented in Section 2 expires. However, employers should not reverify:

1. U.S. citizens and noncitizen nationals; or
2. Lawful permanent residents who presented a Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551) for Section 2.

Reverification does not apply to List B documents.

If both Section 1 and Section 2 indicate expiration dates triggering the reverification requirement, the employer should reverify by the earlier date.

For reverification, an employee must present unexpired documentation from either List A or List C showing he or she is still authorized to work. Employers CANNOT require the employee to present a particular document from List A or List C. The employee may choose which document to present.

To complete Section 3, employers should follow these instructions:

1. Complete Block A if an employee's name has changed at the time you complete Section 3.
2. Complete Block B with the date of rehire if you rehire an employee within 3 years of the date this form was originally completed, and the employee is still authorized to be employed on the same basis as previously indicated on this form. Also complete the "Signature of Employer or Authorized Representative" block.
3. Complete Block C if:
 - a. The employment authorization or employment authorization document of a current employee is about to expire and requires reverification; or
 - b. You rehire an employee within 3 years of the date this form was originally completed and his or her employment authorization or employment authorization document has expired. (Complete Block B for this employee as well.)

To complete Block C:

- a. Examine either a List A or List C document the employee presents that shows that the employee is currently authorized to work in the United States; and
 - b. Record the document title, document number, and expiration date (if any).
4. After completing block A, B or C, complete the "Signature of Employer or Authorized Representative" block, including the date.

For reverification purposes, employers may either complete Section 3 of a new Form I-9 or Section 3 of the previously completed Form I-9. Any new pages of Form I-9 completed during reverification must be attached to the employee's original Form I-9. If you choose to complete Section 3 of a new Form I-9, you may attach just the page containing Section 3, with the employee's name entered at the top of the page, to the employee's original Form I-9. If there is a more current version of Form I-9 at the time of reverification, you must complete Section 3 of that version of the form.

What Is the Filing Fee?

There is no fee for completing Form I-9. This form is not filed with USCIS or any government agency. Form I-9 must be retained by the employer and made available for inspection by U.S. Government officials as specified in the "USCIS Privacy Act Statement" below.

Form W-4 (2014)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2014 expires February 17, 2015. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,000 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions do not apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2014. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

Consumer Direct recommends every employee select direct deposit, either to a Visa debit card issued through US Bank or to another account you specify. Direct deposits avoid all possible delays associated with delivery of mail - and that helps you access your pay on pay day. Your pay stub (summary of your pay) will be sent by first class mail to your address on file. First class mail terms and limitations apply.

Consumer Direct offers the following pay options. Please select one option below.

- US Bank Focus Card Direct Deposit – I authorize Consumer Direct to issue me a US Bank Focus Card using my Social Security Number and other identification on file and to initiate payroll deposits to my card account. You should receive your debit card in approximately two weeks.

- Bank or Credit Union Direct Deposit – I authorize Consumer Direct to initiate payroll deposits to (name of bank or financial institution): _____

Account Type (check one): Checking Savings

For Checking Accounts:

Attach (tape) a voided check here
Do not attach a deposit slip.

For Savings Accounts: provide a document from your bank with exact numbers to process direct deposits to your account. If the document is larger than a standard-sized check, please provide a separate document. Do not attach a deposit slip because it does not have all the necessary numbers.

I authorize Consumer Direct to process my selected method of pay as indicated. In the event that funds are deposited mistakenly to my account, I authorize Consumer Direct to debit my account to correct the error. It is my responsibility to confirm that each deposit has occurred and to pay any fees caused by overdrafts on my account. Deposits will be made on each payday unless I notify my employer, in writing, of my request to stop direct deposits. I understand that Consumer Direct reserves the right to refuse any direct deposit request, that all direct deposits are made through an Automated Clearing House (ACH), and that the processing is subject to ACH terms and limitations, as well as those of my financial institution. I understand that I may still receive a paper check while my selected method of pay is being set up.

- Opt-Out (decline or stop direct deposit) – I decline direct deposit and authorize Consumer Direct to issue me pay checks and to mail them to my address on file. I accept that I may not receive my paycheck on paydays due to USPS First Class mail delays or operations.

Dear Support Broker,

The following is information regarding the new Affordable Care Act related Health Insurance Marketplace. Key parts of the health care law took effect in 2014; as a result, there is a new way to buy health insurance: the Health Insurance Marketplace.

The annual Open Enrollment Period for the Health Insurance Marketplace is usually scheduled to begin on November 15th each year for coverage starting January 1st of each year. This is the one time of year where you can apply for private health insurance coverage through the marketplace. To confirm Open Enrollment Period dates for this year, please contact www.HealthCare.gov. NOTE: You can apply for Medicaid or CHIP (Children's Health Insurance Program) any time of year.

To assist you as you evaluate options for you and your family, this information sheet provides some basic information about the new Marketplace.

If you have any questions about healthcare reform or the online application process, please contact the Health Insurance Marketplace Call Center at 1-800-318-2596 or visit www.HealthCare.gov.

Thank you,
Human Resources Department
for Consumer Direct and the Consumer Direct Family of Companies

Health Care Marketplace

PART A: General Information

What is the Health Insurance Marketplace?

The Marketplace is designed to help you find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget. The Marketplace offers "one-stop shopping" to find and compare private health insurance options. You may also be eligible for a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premium right away.

Can I Save Money on my Health Insurance Premiums in the Marketplace?

You may qualify to save money and lower your monthly premium, but only if your employer does not offer coverage, or offers coverage that doesn't meet certain standards. The savings on your premium that you're eligible for depends on your household income.

Does Employer Health Coverage Affect Eligibility for Premium Savings through the Marketplace?

Yes. If you have an offer of health coverage from your employer that meets certain standards, you will not be eligible for a tax credit through the Marketplace and may wish to enroll in your employer's health plan. However, you may be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium, or a reduction in certain cost-sharing if your employer does not offer coverage to you at all or does not offer coverage that meets certain standards. If the cost of a plan from your employer that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.5% of your household income for the year, or if the coverage your employer provides does not meet the "minimum value" standard set by the Affordable Care Act, you may be eligible for a tax credit ¹.

¹ An employer-sponsored health plan meets the "minimum value standard" if the plan's share of the total allowed benefit costs covered by the plan is no less than 60 percent of such costs.

How Can I Get More Information?

The Marketplace can help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the Marketplace and its cost. Please call 1-800-318-2596 or visit HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and contact information for a Health Insurance Marketplace in your area.

PART B: Information About Health Coverage Offered by Your Employer

In the Idaho self-directed care model, the Participant is the employer of record and the managing employer. Health insurance is not being offered by your employer. You and your family may be able to obtain health coverage through the Marketplace, with a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premiums and with assistance for out-of-pocket costs.

Medicaid Coverage

In all states, Medicaid provides health coverage for some low-income people, families and children, pregnant women, the elderly, and people with disabilities. Idaho has chosen not to expand its Medicaid program at this time. You might not qualify for Medicaid or reduced costs on a private insurance plan; it will depend on where your income falls. Even though Idaho hasn't expanded Medicaid coverage, you should still apply. The Medicaid program provides health coverage to millions of lower-income individuals and families today. You may qualify under your state's existing rules.

There are two (2) ways that you can find out whether you qualify for Medicaid in Idaho:

- Contact your state Medicaid agency online at www.healthandwelfare.idaho.gov or call their Customer Service Center at 1-877-456-1233.
- Fill out an application for coverage in the Health Insurance Marketplace at www.healthcare.gov/marketplace.

If you live in Idaho, you'll use www.HealthCare.gov to apply and enroll in health coverage. For more information on resources available in your state, visit www.healthandwelfare.idaho.gov

Employer Time Approval

For Employers, the online time approval process is similar to a paper time sheet process in that both systems require review and approval of Employee time entries. With the online timesheet system it minimizes data entry errors and provides the Employer with far more information regarding the exact status of their budget, payroll, and Employee hours.

Approving Time

All entries with an  indicates the shift was submitted for approval by the Employee. The Employer must review all entries and verify the times are correct.

You can manually select each entry to approve using the check box on the far left side of the entry or you can select all entries by clicking the “select all” button. To approve the selected time, click the “approve selected” button.

A  will now appear indicating the shift was approved by the “client” (Employer). After you have approved the entries, Consumer Direct will complete the payroll process.

Reports

My Direct Care provides access to custom budget and spending reports, which are available to both Employers and Support Brokers. The reports fall into two primary categories: Spending Summary and Spending Detail. To access Reports, click Reports from the top menu. This will open a page allowing you to choose between a Spending Summary and a Spending Detail Report (Figure 14). Clicking on either report link will open a blank report in a new browser window.

When the report window opens, you will need to select the parameters at the top of the report window and click on the View Report button in the upper right hand corner to generate the report. After your report has been generated, you can export the report to one of several file formats, such as to a PDF, or to a Microsoft Word or Excel file by selecting your export file choice (Figure 15) and clicking on the Export button.

Spending Detail Report

The Spending Detail Report (Figure 16) details the Participant’s spending between the dates selected for the report range. The report shows all spending and is broken down by employee and vendor. The Spending Detail Report provides highly detailed spending data to support and provide enhanced clarity to the information in the Spending Summary. The format of this report is program dependent.

Spending Summary Report

The Spending Summary (Figure 17) is a report summarizing the Participant’s year-to-date spending against their Approved Plan. The report indicates the approved service codes, the amount spent per code and the elapsed time for the authorization period. This report provides a concise status of spending and the remaining budget, both overall and per service code.

Job Board

The Job Board is a tool that provides another means for recruiting new or additional assistance. It provides a method for Job Seekers to find Participants who need assistance. When an Employer posts a job (Job Poster), the posting will remain active for 30 days and allows the Job Poster to include as much detail as desired, including notes and requirements. Job Seekers can review the postings and submit an emailed application to the Job Poster via the Job Board. Following the 30-day active period, the posts are archived. Archived posts can be edited, deleted, or reposted as needed. The Job Poster's name, address, email and other contact information remains confidential throughout the process.

Job Poster

When a Job Poster hovers over the Jobs link on the top menu (Figure 18), three submenus become available, including Post a Job, Edit/Delete Your Jobs, and View Archived Posts.

Post a Job: Clicking on the "Post a Job" link will open a form for entering the job description (Figure 19). Complete all the fields with as much information as possible before submitting the job post. If needed, you can always edit the entry later.

Edit/Delete Your Jobs: This provides a listing of current jobs posted by the Employer and provides options to edit or delete each entry (Figure 20).

View Archived Posts: These are postings that have expired or have been manually archived (Figure 21).

The Job Poster receives an email when a Job Seeker submits their resume to the Job Board, which contains the Job Seeker's application information for review. The Job Seeker's email address is included to facilitate direct communication between the Job Poster and the Job Seeker.

IDAHO'S SELF DIRECTION PROGRAM

FISCAL EMPLOYER AGENT SERVICES

PAYING FOR YOUR SUPPORTS

This Paying for Your Supports Packet includes the forms you need to use so that employees, vendors (such as businesses), independent contractors and agencies can be paid for providing your services and supports. The Packet also includes some other information that you will need.

You can fill out these payment forms based on information contained in this Packet. We think you will be able to fill them out by looking at the examples in the Packet. For each required form, the Paying for Your Supports Packet includes a blank form and an example form that explains how you the form should be completed.

If you have questions about how to fill out any of the forms, please call Consumer Direct right away for help. Our toll free number is: 1-888-898-0470

If you want more help, you also could stop by the Consumer Direct office at: 280 E. Corporate Drive, Suite 210, Meridian, Monday - Friday, 8:00 am - 5:00 pm.

Employees and some service providers (such as independent contractors or agencies) cannot be paid until they have been enrolled. First, they must complete required Employment Agreement forms with the Participant (which are included in other Packets). Then, after the Agreements are completed, payment for services can be made. Employees are paid after time sheets and mileage reimbursement forms, included in the Packet, are completed and submitted. Other workers and vendors are paid by completing request for vendor payment forms from this Packet.

The Paying for Your Supports Packet contains:

- ➔ Idaho Time Sheet
- ➔ Instructions for Idaho Time Sheet
- ➔ Payroll Schedule
- ➔ Request for Vendor Payment
- ➔ Mileage Reimbursement Form
- ➔ Instructions for Mileage Reimbursement

The directions for filling out these forms are described below.

Paying Employees:

Idaho Time Sheet: Employees must complete and sign a time sheet before they can be paid. You must review and sign the time sheet to show that you approve it. Remember, your employee can only be paid through this program for the hours worked that are approved in your Support and Spending Plan. This means that you can only approve hours on the time sheet for services that have been approved on your Support and Spending Plan. These hours must be for services you outlined on the Participant-Community Support Worker Employment Agreement or Participant-Support Broker Employment Agreement.

The time sheet is completed to report your employee's hours worked. The instructions for the Idaho time sheet are included in this packet. Please use these instructions when filling out a time sheet. It is a good idea to review the time sheet form before you fill it out. That way you can ask questions before you actually have to complete the form.

This Packet includes a sample time sheet that is filled out correctly. You can refer to this example, when you complete the time sheet and approve it for your employees. Please use the example so that you don't make mistakes. Mistakes on a time sheet can cause your employee's pay to be late.

You and your employee both sign the time sheet to show that it is correct. After the time sheet is finished, you can return it to Consumer Direct by mail, email or fax.

Mail them to: Consumer Direct
280 E. Corporate Drive, Suite 210
Meridian, Idaho 83642-2953

Email them to: InfoCDID@ConsumerDirectOnline.net

Fax them to: (208) 898-0417 or Toll Free 1-877-898-0417

If you prefer, you can drop off time sheets at the Consumer Direct office Monday - Friday, 8:00 - 5:00 (during work hours) or use our drop box (mail slot) after hours.

It would be a good idea for you to keep a copy of your employee's time sheet each time one is sent or faxed in. That way if there are any questions, you will have a copy.

If your employee(s) needs more time sheets, you can get more by calling Consumer Direct and a staff person will send you more. You can also download time sheets from Consumer Direct's website at <http://consumerdirectonline.net>.

Remember, if you want to change an employee's hourly pay, there must be enough money in your Support and Spending Plan category of service to cover the yearly cost of the wage increase. If the wage increase is beyond the amount that is available in the Service and Support Plan category, you must contact your Regional Care Manager and ask to change your Support and Spending Plan. You also must complete a new Participant-Community Support Worker Employment Agreement with the employee to show the new hourly pay rate. Please check the "Wages and Cost to You" Form in the Employee Packet so you can see about how much the total hourly cost will be for the new wage you want to pay. It is very important to make sure that your Support and Spending Plan budget has enough money in the service category to cover the yearly total cost of the higher wage.

Payroll Schedule: The Payroll Schedule form shows when time sheets are due. This is the date time sheets must be received by mail, fax or dropped off at Consumer Direct. Time sheets must be submitted by midnight. The Payroll Schedule also shows the date and day for pay day. Your employees are paid on pay day. Pay day is every two weeks and is always on a Friday. Employees will be paid by check or direct deposit.

Remember, any time sheet received by Consumer Direct after the Payroll Schedule due date will be paid on the following pay date (the next pay date).

Request for Vendor Payment: The Request for Vendor Payment form is used to pay three different kinds of vendors:

- 1) An agency which provides workers as Community Support Workers. The agency must sign a Participant-Agency/Community Support Worker Agreement (see the Packet for Other Service Providers and Vendors for more details).
- 2) Independent contractors who provide supports but are not your employees. They must sign a Participant-Independent Contractor Work Agreement (see the Packet for Other Service Providers and Vendors for more details).
- 3) Other businesses, professionals and service providers who are not employees or independent contractors.

The Request for Vendor Payment form also is used to obtain payment for items (such as home modifications, ramps, adaptive equipment, direct therapy services, therapeutic recreation services or other allowed items). The goods, supports and services that vendors provide must be approved in your Support and Spending Plan.

All vendor payments are made by check. Checks for an Agency or Independent Contractor will be sent directly to them at the address indicated on the Request for Vendor Payment form.

Checks for a Business, Professional or other Service Provider will be made out to the vendor, but mailed to the Participant who is responsible for delivering it to the vendor. Checks are sent on the same days as the pay dates listed on the Payroll Schedule. No check will be sent if the item is not approved on your Support and Spending Plan. Also, no check will be sent for any item you have already purchased.

The Request for Vendor Payment form must be filled out completely, and you must attach the documents (paperwork) to show what was purchased and its cost. You must attach a copy of one of the following: a voided receipt, an invoice or a signed bid/estimate.

When you fill out a Request for Vendor Payment form, please:

- ▶ Print the Participant's name and the Employer's ID number.
- ▶ Put a check in the box to show if the vendor is an agency, an independent contractor or another business, professional or service provider.
- ▶ Print the name of the vendor (agency, independent contractor or business) that the check should be made out to.
- ▶ Print the name of the vendor who performed the work or provided the item.
- ▶ Print the vendor's address.
- ▶ Print the city, state and zip code of the vendor.
- ▶ Under "Date of Invoice", write the date the invoice was actually provided (for example, by an agency) or the date on the voided receipt or invoice obtained from a vendor or an independent contractor. Check to make sure the invoice has a date. Use that date on the Request for Vendor Payment form.
- ▶ Under "Category Code" write the service code (the 3 letters for the service category) that the item or service fits under:
 - a. SBS, SB2, SB3 = Support Broker Support
 - b. PSS, PS2, PS3 = Personal Support
 - c. JSS, JS2, JS3 = Job Support
 - d. TSS, TS2, TS3 = Transportation Support
 - e. LSS, LS2, LS3 = Learning Support
 - f. RSS, RS2, RS3 = Relationship Support
 - g. ESS, ES2, ES3 = Emotional Support

h. SNS, SN2, SN3 = Skilled Nursing Support

i. AEQ = Adaptive Equipment

- ▶ Under "Description" write the specific item or service that was purchased.
- ▶ Under "Amount" write the exact cost (amount) of the item or service.
- ▶ Use the four lines in the box on the form to include up to four different kinds of purchased items or services.
- ▶ Sign and date the bottom of the form to show the your (Participant's) approval.
- ▶ Make sure to attach the required receipt, purchase order, invoice or signed bid/estimate to the Request for Vendor Payment.
- ▶ Remember to include sales tax for items purchased from a vendor.
- ▶ The completed Request for Vendor Payment form should be mailed or faxed to Consumer Direct at:

Consumer Direct

Toll Free Fax: 1-877-898-0417

Remember to keep a copy of the Request for Vendor Payment Form when you send or fax the original to Consumer Direct.

Mileage Reimbursement form: The Mileage Reimbursement form is used to pay a person who transports you and is paid by the mile. This form is filled out to pay your employee mileage for transporting you (a person who provides Transportation Support for you). A Community Support Worker can be paid an hourly wage + transportation mileage for the same date and time of service when he/she provides transportation services for a Participant. That means, your Community Support Worker can submit a Mileage Reimbursement form and an Idaho time sheet for the same activity. But, a Support Broker cannot be paid both an hourly wage and transportation mileage for transporting a Participant. That means your Support Broker cannot be paid an hourly wage under Transportation Support to drive you somewhere and also submit a Mileage Reimbursement form to pay mileage for driving you to the same place.

The directions for filling out the Mileage Reimbursement form are included in this packet.

Please return completed forms to Consumer Direct. You can mail, fax or drop off forms at our office (the address and fax number are on page 2 and page 5 above).

Family-Directed Services Option
FISCAL EMPLOYER AGENT SERVICES

PACKET FOR OTHER SERVICE PROVIDERS AND VENDORS

Welcome to Idaho's Family-Directed Services Option! We are pleased that you will be working with and providing services to a family in this program. You will be helping Idaho meet its goal of giving people with disabilities more choice and control over their services.

Consumer Direct is very pleased to work with families and others who will be providing services and supports. Consumer Direct is a Fiscal Employer Agent for the Family-Directed Services Option. We are like a personal banker or payroll service company. We process payroll, file taxes, pay for services provided by other businesses or agencies and bill the state program for services provided by other businesses and agencies and bill the state program for services.

Consumer Direct provides the family with the necessary paperwork to get set up as an employer. We also provide the paperwork for the other individuals to get enrolled as family service (support) providers. Once other service providers are enrolled, we process all of the forms and pay them as directed by the family (employer). Consumer Direct has over fourteen years of experience in many different states assisting people with directing their supports and services. We specialize in a range of self-directed service models.”

In some situations, the people who provide services and supports are not employees of the Participant's Representative. In these situations, the Representative's role is to:

- Complete an employment agreement with an Agency if the Agency will provide workers for the Participant's Representative (employer).
- Complete a work agreement with an Independent Contractor who is going to do work for the Participant's Representative (employer).
- Complete the paperwork that is required to pay an agency or independent contractor.

- Pay the agency or the independent contractor directly if they work for the Participant's Representative doing things that are not approved in the Participant's Support and Spending Plan (the Participant's Representative pays...the Family-Directed Services option of the My Choice, My Voice Program does not pay).
- Approve and sign a timesheet that the agency requires for their employee.
- Keep required records, receipts and invoices.

This Packet for Other Service Providers includes the forms that the Participant's Representative needs to complete with you so you can be enrolled to provide services (supports) for the Participant. You and the Participant's Representative can fill out the forms to set you up as a service provider based on information contained in this Packet. We think you will be able to fill them out by looking at the instructions in the Packet. If you have questions about how to fill out any of the forms, please call Consumer Direct right away so we can help. Our toll free number is 1-888-898-0470.

If you want more help, you also could stop by the Consumer Direct office at 280 E. Corporate Drive, Suite 210, Meridian, during business hours Monday - Friday, 8:00 am - 5:00 pm.

When you have completed all of the forms, please mail or fax them to Consumer Direct at:

Consumer Direct
280 E. Corporate Drive, Suite 210
Meridian, Idaho 83642-2953

Toll Free Fax: 1-877-898-0417
Fax: (208) 898-0417

You also could drop off the form at Consumer Direct's office.

It is very important that you complete these forms and return them to Consumer Direct as quickly as possible. You cannot be ready to start work for a Participant until you have been enrolled to provide services.

The forms in the Packet for Other Service Providers are:

- ✓ Instructions for Hiring an Independent Contractor
- ✓ Participant-Independent Contractor Work Agreement
- ✓ Criminal History Check (2)
- ✓ Instructions for Hiring an Agency to Provide Community Support
- ✓ Participant-Agency/Community Support Worker Employment Agreement

Participant-Independent Contractor Work Agreement and Instructions: This Work Agreement Form is completed when the Participant's Representative wants to hire an independent contractor to provide services. The issue of who is an independent contractor is a complex one. A copy of IRS guidance about this issue is included in the Packet. Please look at this to decide if someone is an independent contractor. It is the responsibility of the Participant's Representative to decide if someone will be an independent contractor.

The directions for completing the Work Agreement are included with the form ("Instructions for Hiring an Independent Contractor"). Please review the directions carefully. Then follow the directions to fill out the form correctly. An independent contractor also must submit a W-9 in order to be enrolled as a service provider. A copy of a W-9 is included in the Packet.

Criminal History Check: A Participant's Representative can choose not to have a criminal history background check on an independent contractor. This means the criminal history background check is waived. If the Participant's Representative chooses this option, he/she has to complete a written statement that explains his/her choice. There are two forms in the Packet related to the criminal history check. If the Participant's Representative chooses not to have the criminal history check done, he/she must complete the "Criminal History Check: Waiver of Liability - Assumption of Risk" Form. If an independent contractor has failed a criminal history background check, the Participant's Representative still can consider employing the person. But, in this situation, the Participant's Representative has to fill out the "Criminal History Check: Waiver of Liability - Assumption of Risk - Failed Criminal History Check". These forms are attached to the Participant-Independent Contractor Work Agreement. The Participant's Representative and the independent contractor both need to read these forms carefully.

Participant-Agency/Community Support Worker Employment Agreement and Instructions: This Employment Agreement Form is completed when the Participant's Representative wants to hire an agency whose workers will provide services or supports. The agency employs the worker as a Community Support Worker. The directions for completing the Employment Agreement are included with the form ("Instructions for Hiring an Agency to Provide Community Support"). Please review the directions carefully. Then follow the directions to fill out the form correctly.

The agency must complete a criminal history check for the Community Support Worker, unless the Participant's Representative has signed a waiver of the criminal history check. If a criminal history check is done, the Community Support Worker must have cleared the criminal history background check in order to work.

Other Vendors: Other businesses, professionals or service providers sometimes provide goods, supports and services for the Participant. They are not independent contractors or agencies (who provide Community Support Workers). Examples of things other vendors might provide could include (but are not limited to) minor home modifications, communication aids, direct therapy services, therapeutic recreation, certain courses or training materials associated with categories of service on the Support and Spending Plan, public transportation and adaptive equipment and supplies.

We look forward to enrolling you as the Participant's service (supports) provider. Please feel free to contact us with any questions. Consumer Direct's toll free number is 1-888-898-0470.

Remember, when you have finished either of the Agreement forms, please return the form to Consumer Direct as soon as possible. Please mail, fax or drop off the forms to Consumer Direct at:

Participant- Agency / Community Support Worker Employment Agreement

This agreement is hereby made between _____, a participant of the Self-Directed Community Supports (SDCS) Option, a Medicaid option administered by the Department of Health and Welfare (the department), and _____, an agency.

It is mandatory to identify specific community support workers (CSW) who will be supplying services under this agreement.

The names of the individuals who will provide community support services under this agreement are:

The participant wants to hire the agency to provide a CSW for services under the SDCS Option. In exchange, the agency will bill for and provide payment to the CSW for services provided to the participant. Both parties understand and agree that payment is made through a fiscal employer agent (FEA), using Medicaid monies and based on time sheets submitted by the CSW and approved by the participant.

The CSW will remain an employee of the agency and the agency agrees to provide services that might otherwise be the responsibility of the participant, as detailed in the "Additional Terms" section. To these mutual purposes, the parties promise and agree as follows:

1. The CSW services are to be provided in accordance with the participant's SDCS Option Support and Spending Plan, and the SDCS Option rules, outlined in IDAPA 16.03.13, "Consumer-Directed Services."
2. The CSW remains the employee of the agency but will provide services as directed, controlled, and approved by the participant.
3. The CSW is hired to help the participant and assumes no legal liability for the participant's conduct.
4. The agency will ensure that the CSW meets the minimum qualifications to be a CSW, as outlined in Section 136 of IDAPA 16.03.13, "Consumer-Directed Services."
5. The CSW is an employee of the agency and is not an employee of the SDCS Option or the FEA, and agree that the CSW is not entitled to nor will make claim for any employee benefits from the SDCS Option or the FEA, including but not limited to worker's compensation, disability, life insurance, or health insurance.

6. The agency will notify the participant immediately in the event the CSW is unable to provide the agreed services due to sickness, injury, or personal emergency. The CSW must obtain the participant's written approval in advance for any pre-planned absence.
7. Unless the participant specifies otherwise in the "Additional Terms" section of this agreement, the agency will train the CSW on the duties and responsibilities of a CSW.
8. The agency will be responsible for ensuring the accuracy of CSW's time records.
9. The agency will train the CSW and require the CSW to provide services in a safe, courteous, and professional manner. The agency acknowledges that any physical, sexual, or mental abuse or neglect of the participant by the CSW will result in the immediate termination of this agreement and a report being made according to the requirements in Section 39-5303, Idaho Code.
10. The agency will train the CSW and require the CSW to report any observed physical, sexual, or mental abuse, and any exploitation or neglect of the participant to adult protection authorities immediately.
11. The agency cannot provide or bill for services until:
 - An authorized "Support and Spending Plan" has been submitted to the FEA.
 - The CSW has either cleared the criminal history background check or has a waiver signed by the participant.
12. The agency will not be paid for services until:
 - A time sheet has been submitted to and signed by the participant.
 - An invoice that correlates to the CSW's time sheet has been supplied by the agency and signed by the participant.
 - The invoice has been submitted to the FEA.
13. Medicaid funding can only pay for services that are provided. Under the SDCS option, Medicaid will not reimburse the agency or the CSW for any vacation time, holiday time, overtime, or sick time. Medicaid will not pay wages at an hourly amount in excess of this agreement.

The agency will ensure that any CSW who performs paid work in excess of 40 hours a week or works for less than minimum wage has met the criteria for exemption from the requirements for overtime and minimum wage, according to the Fair Labor Standards Act and the Idaho Department of Commerce and Labor.

The agency will provide the following services to the participant:

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on www.irs.gov/w9 for information about Form W-9, at www.irs.gov/w9. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, payments made to you in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity,
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust, and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 3 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

What is FATCA reporting? The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3 and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulation section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the U.S. federal tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation, as appropriate. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for U.S. federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

If you are exempt from backup withholding and/or FATCA reporting, enter in the Exemptions box, any code(s) that may apply to you. See Exempt payee code and Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, or 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

Employee or Independent Contractor?

An employer must generally withhold federal income taxes, withhold and pay over social security and Medicare taxes, and pay unemployment tax on wages paid to an employee. An employer does not generally have to with-hold or pay over any federal taxes on payments to independent contractors.

Common-Law Rules

To determine whether an individual is an employee or an independent contractor under the common law, the relationship of the worker and the business must be examined. In any employee-independent contractor determination, all information that provides evidence of the degree of control and the degree of independence must be considered.

Facts that provide evidence of the degree of control and independence fall into three categories: behavioral control, financial control, and the type of relationship of the parties. These facts are discussed next.

Behavioral control. Facts that show whether the business has a right to direct and control how the worker does the task for which the worker is hired include the type and degree of:

Instructions that the business gives to the worker. An employee is generally subject to the business' instructions about when, where, and how to work. All of the following are examples of types of instructions about how to do work.

- When and where to do the work.
- What tools or equipment to use.
- What workers to hire or to assist with the work.
- Where to purchase supplies and services.
- What work must be performed by a specified individual.
- What order or sequence to follow.

The amount of instruction needed varies among different jobs. Even if no instructions are given, sufficient behavioral control may exist if the employer has the right to control how the work results are achieved. A business may lack the knowledge to instruct some highly specialized professionals; in other cases, the task may require little or no instruction. The key consideration is whether the business has retained the right to control the details of a worker's performance or instead has given up that right.

Training that the business gives to the worker. An employee may be trained to perform services in a particular manner. Independent contractors ordinarily use their own methods.

Financial control. Facts that show whether the business has a right to control the business aspects of the worker's job include:

The extent to which the worker has unreimbursed business expenses. Independent contractors are more likely to have unreimbursed expenses than are employees. Fixed ongoing costs that are incurred regardless of whether work is currently being performed are especially important. However, employees may also incur unreimbursed expenses in connection with the services that they perform for their employer.

The extent of the worker's investment. An independent contractor often has a significant investment in the facilities or tools he or she uses in performing services for someone else. However, a significant investment is not necessary for independent contractor status.

The extent to which the worker makes his or her services available to the relevant market. An independent contractor is generally free to seek out business opportunities. Independent contractors often advertise, maintain a visible business location, and are available to work in the relevant market.

How the business pays the worker. An employee is generally guaranteed a regular wage amount for an hourly, weekly, or other period of time. This usually indicates that a worker is an employee, even when the wage or salary is supplemented by a commission. An independent contractor is often paid a flat fee or on a time and materials basis for the job. However, it is common in some professions, such as law, to pay independent contractors hourly.

The extent to which the worker can realize a profit or loss. An independent contractor can make a profit or loss.

Type of relationship. Facts that show the parties' type of relationship include:

- Written contracts describing the relationship the parties intended to create.
- Whether or not the business provides the worker with employee-type benefits, such as insurance, a pension plan, vacation pay, or sick pay.
- The permanency of the relationship. If you engage a worker with the expectation that the relationship will continue indefinitely, rather than for a specific project or period, this is generally considered evidence that your intent was to create an employer-employee relationship.
- The extent to which services performed by the worker are a key aspect of the regular business of the company. If a worker provides services that are a key aspect of your regular business activity, it is more likely that you will have the right to direct and control his or her activities. For example, if a law firm hires an attorney, it is likely that it will present the attorney's work as its own and would have the right to control or direct that work. This would indicate an employer-employee relationship.

IRS help. If you want the IRS to determine whether or not a worker is an employee, file Form SS-8, Determination of Worker Status for Purposes of Federal Employment Taxes and Income Tax Withholding, with the IRS.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on www.irs.gov/w9 for information about Form W-9, at www.irs.gov/w9. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, payments made to you in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity,
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust, and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 3 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

What is FATCA reporting? The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3 and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulation section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the U.S. federal tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation, as appropriate. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for U.S. federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Exemptions

If you are exempt from backup withholding and/or FATCA reporting, enter in the Exemptions box, any code(s) that may apply to you. See Exempt payee code and Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3.

Exempt payee code. Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends. Corporations are not exempt from backup withholding for payments made in settlement of payment card or third party network transactions.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following codes identify payees that are exempt from backup withholding:

Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 7

Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 5 ²

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, or 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. IDAHO Fiscal Employer Agent Wages and Cost to You

As you know, it costs you more to employ someone than just their wages. As an employer, by law, you have to additionally pay ½ of your employee’s Social Security and Medicare payment, as well as Federal and State Unemployment taxes. The amount you pay for each of these is a percentage of payroll. These include:

Social Security	-6.200%	← These percentages do not change
Medicare	-1.450%
Federal Unemployment	-0.600%
State Unemployment	-1.906%	← This is an average rate. Your actual rate may vary.

What this means is that for every $1.00 you pay in wages, you have to additionally pay approximately $0.10 in taxes. You do not need to worry about the calculations or actually paying these amounts. Consumer Direct will do that on your behalf.

The following table is provided so you will know your cost to employ someone, based on various wage amounts. The “Cost to You” column is simply the wage multiplied by the total of the percentages listed above. You are free to pay your employees other amounts than those listed in the table; just multiply the amount you want to pay by 1.10156 and you will get the Cost to You, or give us a call, we will help you know your costs.
