Form W-4 (2018)

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2018 if both of the following apply.

• For 2017 you had a right to a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you had no tax liability, and

• For 2018 you expect a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you expect to have no tax liability.

If you're exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2018 expires February 15, 2019. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, to learn more about whether you qualify for exemption from withholding.

General Instructions

If you aren't exempt, follow the rest of these instructions to determine the number of withholding allowances you should claim for withholding for 2018 and any additional amount of tax to have withheld. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

You can also use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine your tax withholding more accurately. Consider using this calculator if you have a more complicated tax situation, such as if you have a working spouse, more than one job, or a large amount of nonwage income outside of your job. After your Form W-4 takes effect, you can also use this calculator to see how the amount of tax you're having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2018. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Note that if you have too much tax withheld, you will receive a refund when you file your tax return. If you have too little tax withheld, you will owe tax when you file your tax return, and you might owe a penalty.

Filers with multiple jobs or working spouses. If you have more than one job at a time, or if you're married and your spouse is also working, read all of the instructions including the instructions for the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet before beginning.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you might owe additional tax. Or, you can use the Deductions, Adjustments, and Other Income Worksheet on page 3 or the calculator at www.irs.gov/ W4App to make sure you have enough tax withheld from your paycheck. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 or use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Personal Allowances Worksheet

Complete this worksheet on page 3 first to determine the number of withholding allowances to claim.

Line C. Head of household please note:

Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you're unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual. See Pub. 501 for more information about filing status.

Line E. Child tax credit. When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your qualifying children. To qualify, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31 and must be your dependent who lives with you for more than half the year. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972. Child Tax Credit. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line E of the worksheet. On the worksheet you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Line F. Credit for other dependents. When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your dependents that don't qualify for the child tax credit, such as any dependent children age 17 and older. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 505. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line F of the worksheet. On the worksheet, you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Line G. Other credits. You might be able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck if you expect to claim other tax credits, such as the earned income tax credit and tax credits for education and child care expenses. If you do so, your paycheck will be larger but the amount of any refund that you receive when you file your tax return will be smaller. Follow the instructions for Worksheet 1-6 in Pub. 505 if you want to reduce your withholding to take these credits into account.

Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet

Complete this worksheet to determine if you're able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck to account for your itemized deductions and other adjustments to income such as IRA contributions. If you do so, your refund at the end of the year will be smaller, but your paycheck will be larger. You're not required to complete this worksheet or reduce your withholding if you don't wish to do so.

You can also use this worksheet to figure out how much to increase the tax withheld from your paycheck if you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends.

Another option is to take these items into account and make your withholding more accurate by using the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet

Complete this worksheet if you have more than one job at a time or are married filing jointly and have a working spouse. If you don't complete this worksheet, you might have too little tax withheld. If so, you will owe tax when you file your tax return and might be subject to a penalty.

Figure the total number of allowances you're entitled to claim and any additional amount of tax to withhold on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Claim all allowances on the W-4 that you or your spouse file for the highest paying job in your family and claim zero allowances on Forms W-4 filed for all other jobs. For example, if you earn $60,000 per year and your spouse earns $20,000, you should complete the worksheets to determine what to enter on lines 5 and 6 of your Form W-4, and your spouse should enter zero ("-0-") on lines 5 and 6 of his or her Form W-4. See Pub. 505 for details.

Another option is to use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make your withholding more accurate.

Tip: If you have a working spouse and your incomes are similar, you can check the "Married, but withhold at higher Single rate" box instead of using this worksheet. If you choose this option, then each spouse should fill out the Personal Allowances Worksheet and check the "Married, but withhold at higher Single rate" box on Form W-4, but only one spouse should claim any allowances for credits or fill out the Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet.

Instructions for Employer

Employees, do not complete box 8, 9, or 10. Your employer will complete these boxes if necessary.

New hire reporting. Employers are required by law to report new employees to a designated State Directory of New Hires. Employers may use Form W-4, boxes 8, 9, and 10 to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee. A newly hired employee is an employee who hasn't previously been employed by the employer, or who was previously employed by the employer but has been separated from such prior employment for at least 60 consecutive days. Employers should contact the appropriate State Directory of New Hires to find out how to submit a copy of the completed Form W-4. For information and links to each designated State Directory of New Hires (including for U.S. territories), go to www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/css/ employers.

If an employer is sending a copy of Form W-4 to a designated State Directory of New Hires to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee, complete boxes 8, 9, and 10 as follows.

Box 8. Enter the employer's name and address. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the address where child support agencies should send income withholding orders.

Box 9. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the employee's first date of employment, which is the date services for payment were first performed by the employee. If the employer rehired the employee after the employee had been separated from the employer's service for at least 60 days, enter the rehire date.

Box 10. Enter the employer's employer identification number (EIN).

Self-Directed Community Supports (SDCS) Option, a Medicaid option administered by the Department of Health and Welfare (department), and ________ a Support Broker.

Support Broker's Name

The participant wants to hire the support broker for services under the Self-Directed Community Supports Option. In exchange, the support broker wants to be paid for the services provided to the participant. Both parties understand and agree that payment is made through a fiscal employer agent (FEA), using Medicaid monies and based on time sheets submitted by the support broker and approved by the employer, who is the participant.

To these mutual purposes, the parties promise and agree as follows:

- 1. Support broker services are to be provided in accordance with "Participant-Support Broker Agreement," and the Self-Directed Community Supports rules, according to the Idaho Administrative Procedures Act (IDAPA) 16.03.13, "Consumer-Directed Services."
- 2. The support broker is hired to help the participant, and assumes no responsibility for the Participant's conduct.
- 3. That the Support Broker is an employee of the Participant and not an employee of the Self-Directed Community Support Option or the FEA, and agree that the Support Broker is not entitled to, nor will make claim for any employee benefits from the Self-Directed Community Support Option or the FEA, including but not limited to, worker's compensation, disability, life insurance, or health insurance.
- 4. The Support Broker will take all actions necessary to become the Participant's employee, and to maintain the employment relationship by submitting necessary documents to the FEA, including:
 - A "Support Broker Letter of Approval" from the Department.
 - A Completed W-4, I-9, and other IRS required forms.
 - A completed criminal history check, including clearance in accordance with IDAPA 16.05.06, "Criminal History and Background Checks".

- 5. The Support Broker will provide all required support broker duties outlined in Subsection 136.02 of IDAPA 16.03.13, "Consumer-Directed Services" and, as mutually agreed upon with the Participant, the optional support broker duties outlined in Subsection 136.03 of IDAPA 16.03.13, "Consumer-Directed Services."
- 6. The Support Broker's wage is not to exceed $18.72 per hour. Notice to Employer and Employee regarding working more than 40 hours a week

In the My Voice, My Choice and Family Directed Services programs, Idaho Medicaid prohibits employees from working more than 40 hours per week unless they are specifically exempted from Fair Labor Standard Act (FSLA) regulations (see page two of your Participant-CSW Employment Agreement).

Because of this restriction, Consumer Direct Care Network (CDCN) cannot pay an employee for any hours worked beyond 40 in a work week unless they qualify for an exemption – and an exemption form, signed by both employer and employee, is on file:

- If CDCN has an exemption form on file...Employee is eligible to work more than 40 hours in a work week Hours worked beyond 40 are paid at the regular hourly rate.
- If CDCN does not have an exemption form on file... Employee is not eligible to work more than 40 hours in a work week Hours worked beyond 40 will not be paid.

The two FSLA exemptions for domestic service employees are:

Companionship Services Exemption - Congress exempted minimum wage and overtime provisions to domestic service employees who provide "companionship services" to the elderly or to people with illness, injuries, or disabilities who require assistance in caring for themselves.

Criteria: Employee must perform at least 80% of their work on one or both or the following:

- Fellowship engages participant in social, physical, and mental activities, such as conversation, reading, games and crafts; and /or accompanying participant on walks, errands, appointments and social events.
- Protection be present with participant in home or accompany participant when outside of home, and monitor participant's safety and well-being.

Live-in Exemption - Congress exempted overtime provisions to domestic service employees who have a "live-in relationship" with their employer. That is, they reside in the household in which they provide services.

Criteria: The employee resides in the participant's home permanently OR resides in participant's home for extended periods of time (120 hours or more per week). No family relationship needs to exist.

EVERY LIFE. EVERY MOMENT. EVERY DAY.

Guidance on these exemptions is available from the Department of Labor's website at https://www.dol.gov/whd/homecare/homecare_guide.htm and on the CDCN website under the resources tab (Look for the link titled: Guide to DOL Home Care Rule).

Exemption forms are available on the CDCN website at http://consumerdirectid.com/forms/, or can be obtained by calling the CDCN Meridian office.

Notice to Employees who have a Live-in Relationship with the Service Recipient

IRS Notice 2014-7 describes "Difficulty of Care Payments" in which income received for care provided under certain Medicaid Waiver programs is excludable from gross income if the service recipient lives in the care provider's home. This means that for qualifying individuals, federal and state income taxes are not withheld from their pay. For an employee to be eligible, the following must apply:

- Services must be provided under a qualified Medicaid Waiver Program providing nonmedical support services under a plan of care.
- The service recipient must reside in the care provider's (employee's) home. No family relationship needs to exist.

Additional information on IRS Notice 2014-7 is available online:

https://www.irs.gov/irb/2014-4_IRB/ar06.html http://ihssadvocate.com/news/notice-2014-7-explained-by-regina-levy-cpa

CDCN will need a Statement of Compliance with IRS Notice 2014-7 on file, with both the employee's and participant's signature to ensure tax withholding are set up correctly. The form is available on the CDCN website at http://consumerdirectid.com/forms/, or can be obtained by calling the CDCN Meridian office.

EVERY LIFE. EVERY MOMENT. EVERY DAY.

Health Care Marketplace

PART A: General Information

What is the Health Insurance Marketplace?

The Marketplace is designed to help you find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget. The Marketplace offers "one-stop shopping" to find and compare private health insurance options. You may also be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium.

Can I Save Money on my Health Insurance Premiums in the Marketplace?

You may qualify to save money and lower your monthly premium, but only if your employer does not offer coverage, or offers coverage that doesn't meet certain standards. The savings on your premium that you're eligible for depends on your household income.

Does Employer Health Coverage Affect Eligibility for Premium Savings through the Marketplace?

Yes. If you have an offer of health coverage from your employer that meets certain standards, you will not be eligible for a tax credit through the Marketplace and may wish to enroll in your employer's health plan. However, you may be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium, or a reduction in certain costsharing if your employer does not offer coverage to you at all or does not offer coverage that meets certain standards. If the cost of a plan from your employer that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.5% of your household income for the year, or if the coverage your employer provides does not meet the "minimum value" standard set by the Affordable Care Act, you may be eligible for a tax credit ¹.

1 An employer-sponsored health plan meets the "minimum value standard" if the plan's share of the total allowed benefit costs covered by the plan is no less than 60 percent of such costs.

How Can I Get More Information?

The Marketplace can help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the Marketplace and its cost. Please call 1.800-318.2596 or visit HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and contact information for a Health Insurance Marketplace in your area.

PART B: Information About Health Coverage Offered by Your Employer

In the Idaho self-directed care model, the Participant is the employer of record and the managing employer. Health insurance is not being offered by your employer. You and your family may be able to obtain health coverage through the Marketplace, with a credit that lowers your monthly premiums and with assistance for out-of-pocket costs.

Medicaid Coverage

In all states, Medicaid provides health coverage for some low-income people, families and children, pregnant women, the elderly, and people with disabilities. Idaho has chosen not to expand its Medicaid program at this time. You might not qualify for Medicaid or reduced costs on a private insurance plan; it will depend on where your income falls. Even though Idaho hasn't expanded Medicaid coverage, you should still apply. The Medicaid program provides health coverage to millions of lower-income individuals and families today. You may qualify under your state's existing rules.

There are two (2) ways that you can find out whether you qualify for Medicaid in Idaho:

- Contact your state Medicaid agency online at www.healthandwelfare.idaho.gov or call their Customer Service Center at 1.877.456.1233.
- Fill out an application for coverage in the Health Insurance Marketplace at www.healthcare.gov/marketplace.

If you live in Idaho, you'll use www.HealthCare.gov to apply and enroll in health coverage. For more information on resources available in your state, visit www.healthandwelfare.idaho.gov
