CONSUMER DIRECT CARE NETWORK IDAHO

Live Well and Independently at Home

You've spent a lifetime making your own decisions and supporting your family's best interests. The in-home care you or your family requires should be no different. CDID provides superior customer service to individuals and families throughout Idaho who choose self-direction for their non-medical services and supports.

Self-direction is a long-term personal care program that prioritizes choice, control, and flexibility and helps Medicaid recipients live safely at home. In self-direction you are the employer of record, which gives you authority to select, train, and manage your caregiver(s), who may be a trusted friend, neighbor, or relative.

Our supports include:

- Employer and employee training
- Fraud detection and prevention tools
- Pre-payment controls
- Post-payment reporting
- Participant and service provider education and training

More than ever, participants are happier and healthier when they can remain at home and make their own decisions.
